"LOVE"—A COMMON LANGUAGE

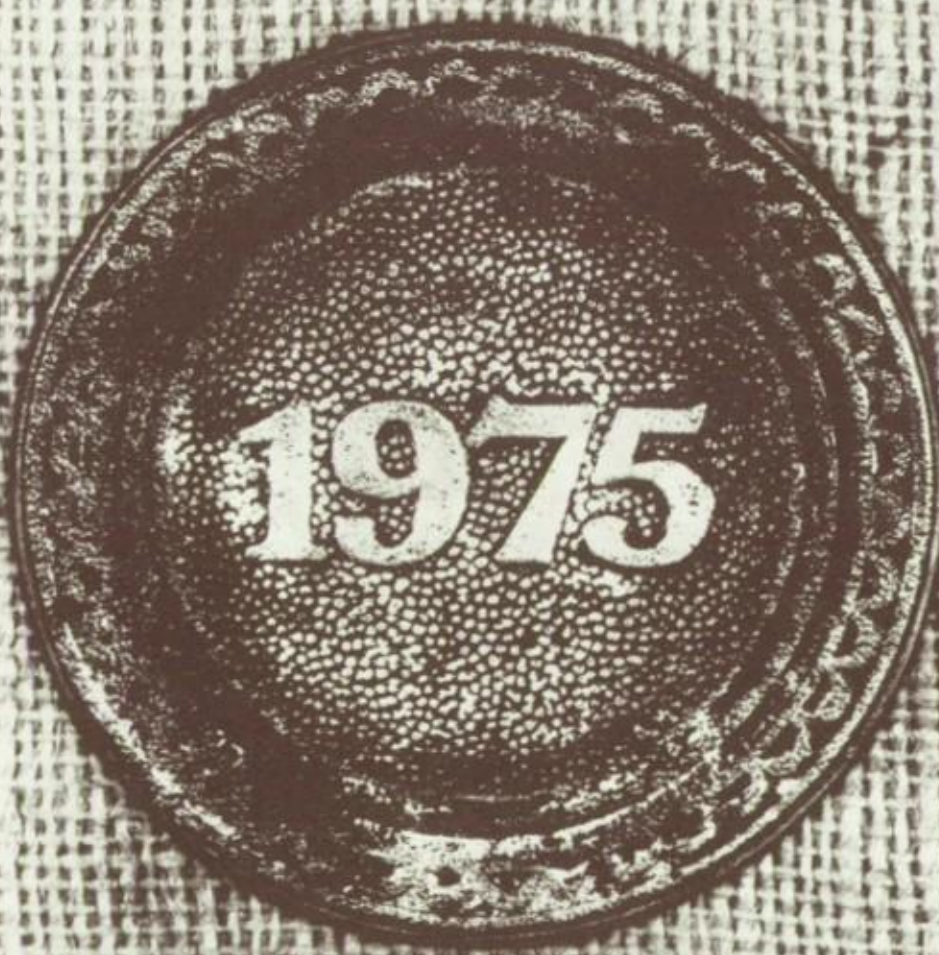

"Love makes the World Go Round" and couples danced on to the sound of Bill Hardesty and his Holiday Brass during Junior-Senior prom 1975. Tom Lacy and Nancy Meisner were crowned King and Queen. The royal court was: first attendants Dave Rice and Rhonda Henning, second attendants Al Kelley and Lynn Carter. Due to circumstances beyond control, Dave didn't have Nancy to the dance in time for the official coronation. Yes, love does make the world go round.

LEADERS OF THE MUSIC MAKERS

The MHS band, directed by Mr. Bob Kiesler, participated in several activities this year. During the fall and winter seasons they helped arouse team spirit by playing at home football games, not to mention the great job they did at homecoming. Marching is an important part of every school band, and MHS came through with flying colors. They musically bounced their way up and down the town during the Pumpkin Festival in September, tuned the Christmas spirit into everyone's ear in Peoria at the Christmas Parade, and finally, lifted almost magically, everyone's heart at Canton in the Friendship Festival. Drum Major this year was Scott Clark. He should be greatly congratulated for a fine job. Love ya Scott. Last, but not least, the MHS band made everyone in Morton proud by performing for their own community. They presented several concerts, and sadly, but sweetly, said good-bye to the seniors, when the musicians played at graduation.

EXCHANGING

CULTURES

OUR ESPECIALLY DEVOTED STUDENTS

This year, National Honor Society again tutored students, but new activities also took place. One of which was a new kind of initiation ceremony. The society also acted with other organizations. To be a member of the society, the student must have been in school 2 years, and have a composite grade of 93 or better. These grades must be maintained through high school. Not only must the student have the grades, but they are screened by a faculty committee to meet other requirements.

Harvey
(A Real Rabbit Ruckus)

Harvey, this years school play, seemed to be a great success. It was the story of a man who had as a best friend, a big, white invisible rabbit named Harvey. For one month before the play an eager cast of eleven members strived and sweated to turn out a smoothly finished production. The jazz band performed too, and they really had the beat. Thanks gang. Only one question cropped up. Where's Harvey?

New make-up for "75" . . . "The Natural Look"

Harvey, was that pepperoni or anchovies?

I'm Joe Cool, who are you?

Hey, now, let's not get so vicious!

"HARVEY" PREPARATIONS

Yes, the preparations for a play are long and hard, but ask any cast member if it isn't worth it on opening night.

The Lawrence Welk of Morton High.

Why me?

You must say that to all the girls.

And then she said . . .

How was I supposed to know?

Aw, it's alright Scotty.

And your next line is . . .

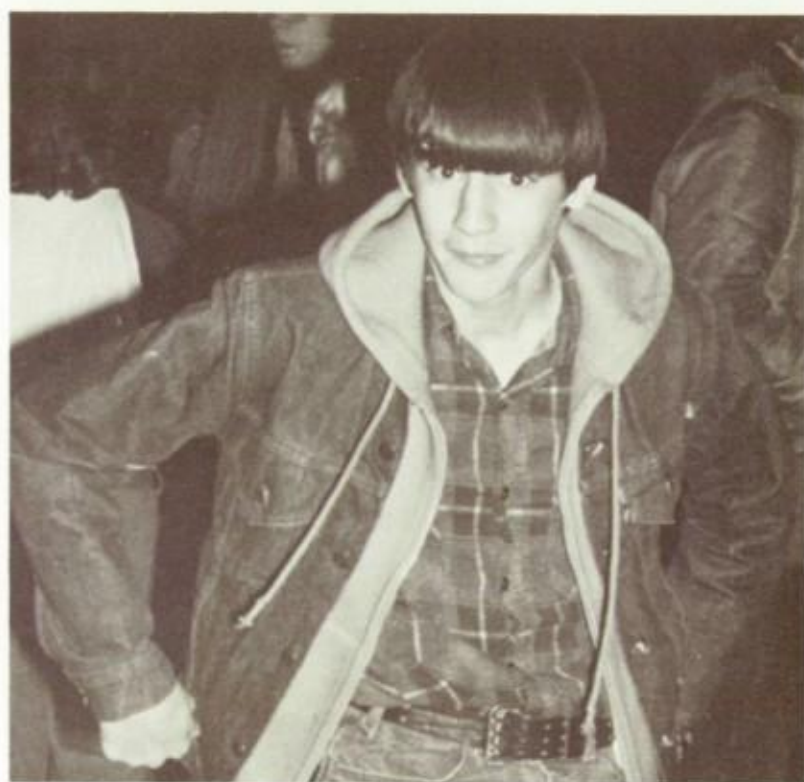

Listen, I know it all.

I've got this one whooped.

Boy, do they look guilty.

Let's boogie.

Any little improvement helps.

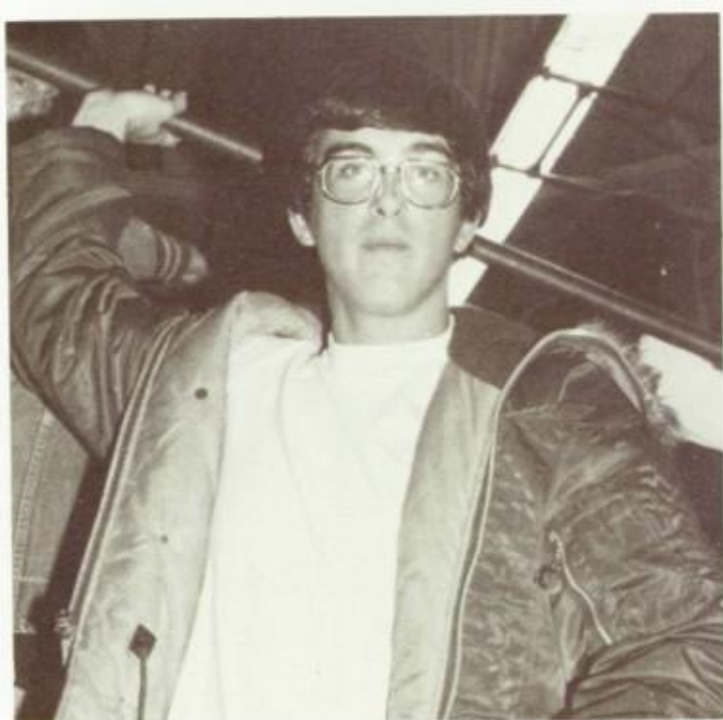

Whatcha tryin' to hide?

Busy study hall table.

I can't believe it!

Gordie Park?

Ruthie the Rabbit.

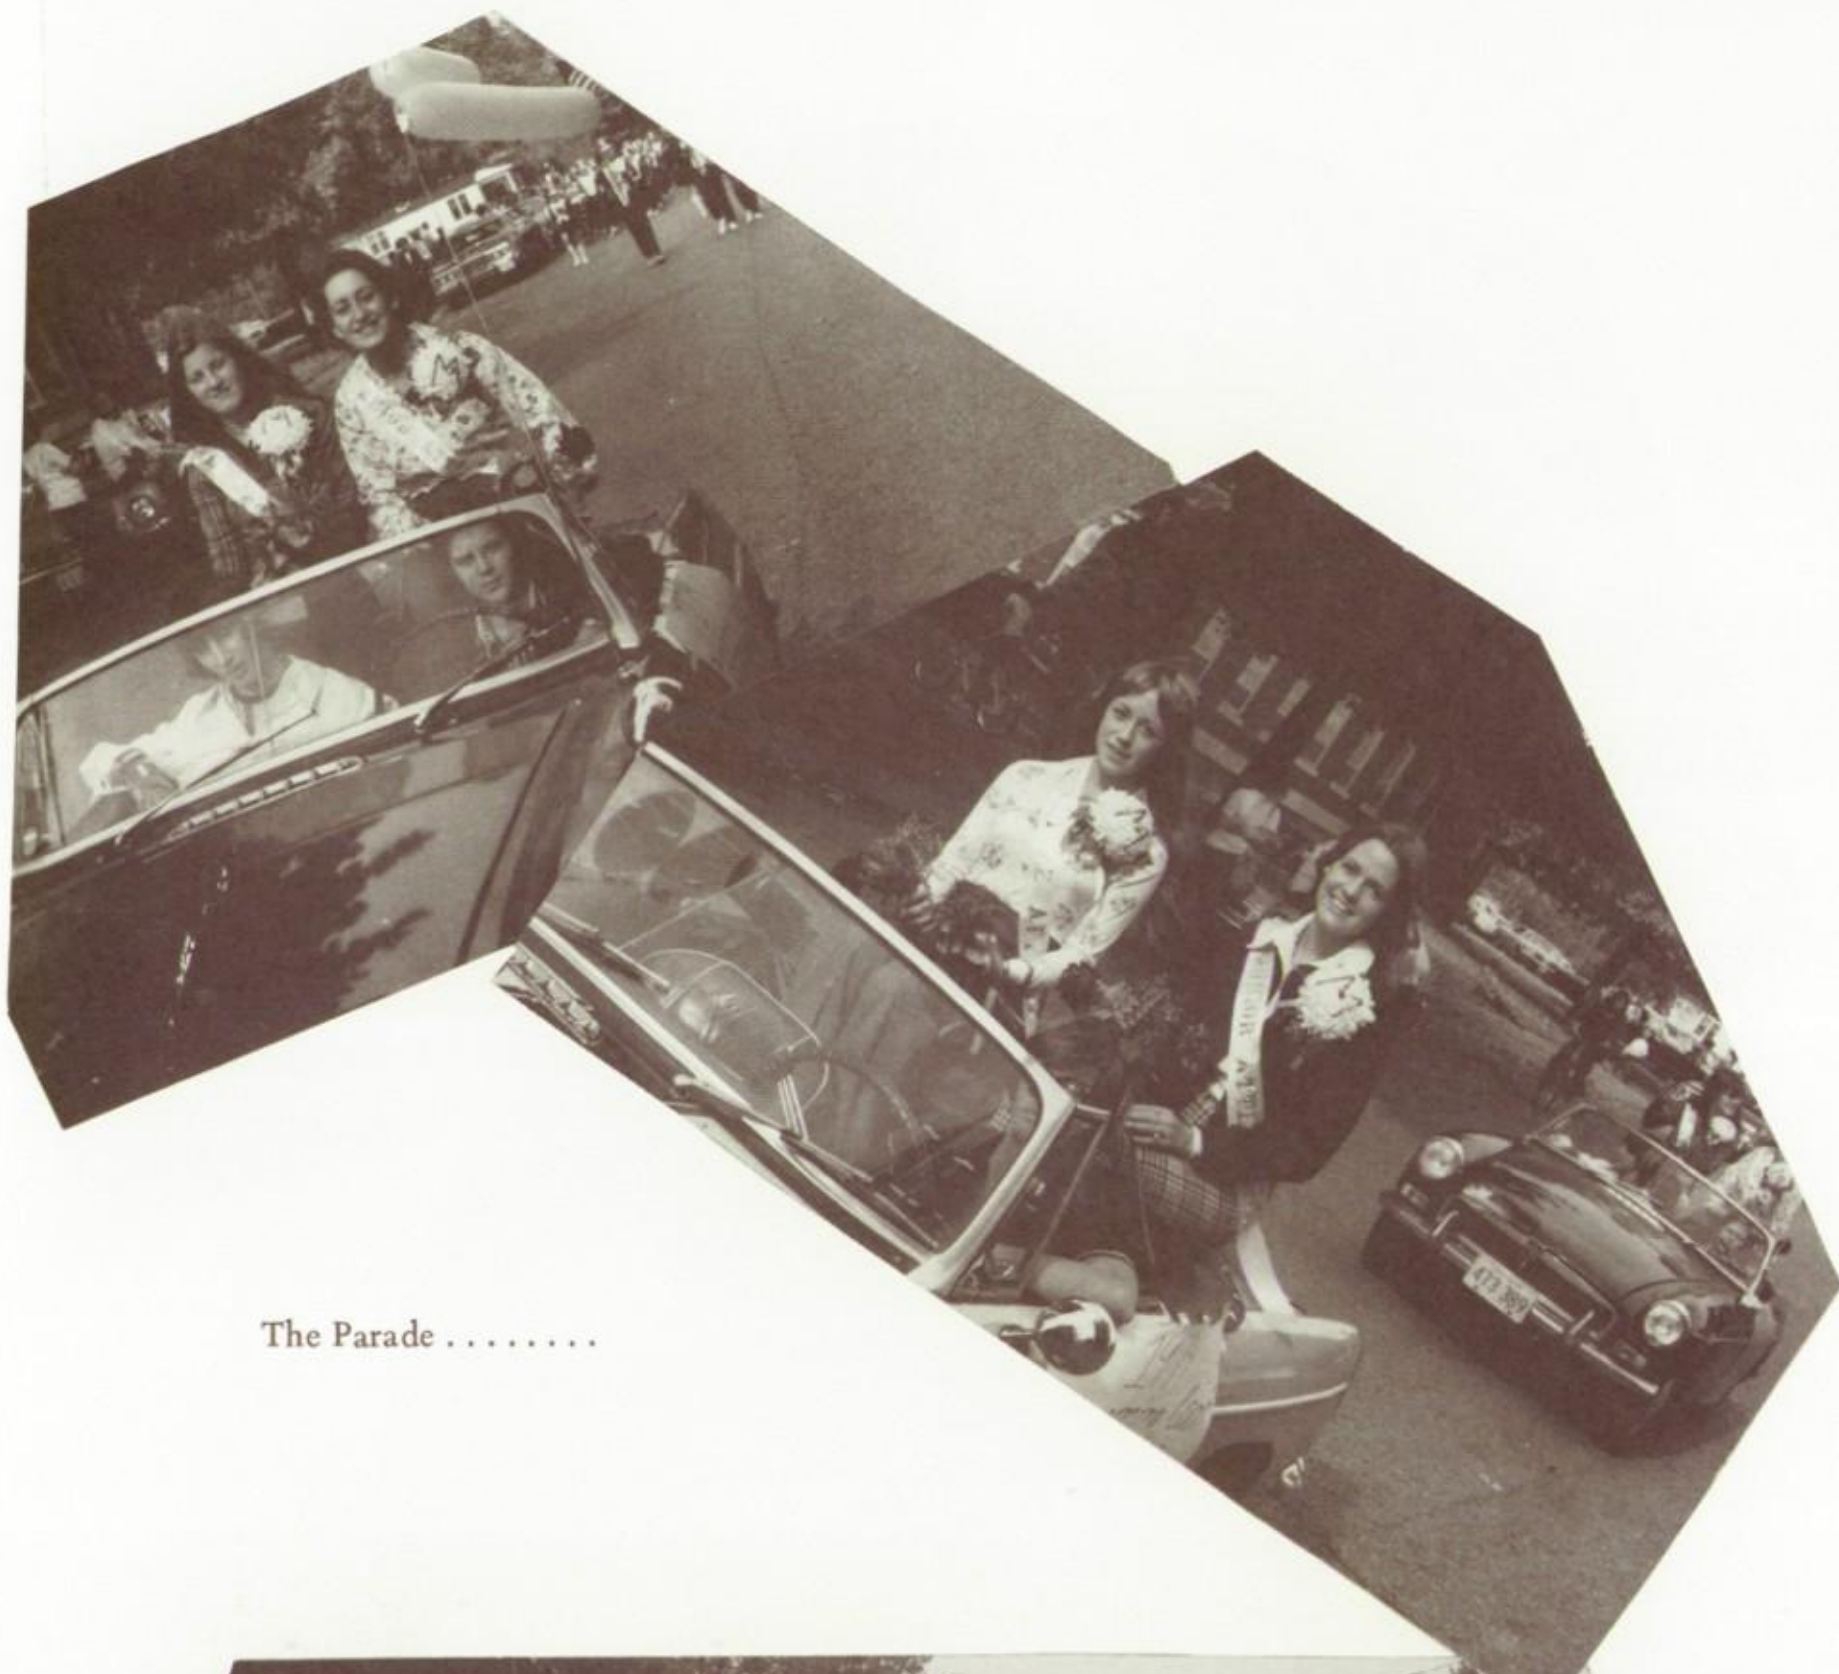

Wife of the Whop.

TO LIVE IN A "FANTASY" 1974 HOMECOMING DANCE

With the new trend of Homecoming King this year, Morton High School's king is Rod Beeler and Queen Heidi Zimmerman. Senior attendants are Doug Shull, and Toni Ristich. Representing the Junior class are Barney Perkins and Crystal Ackerman. Gordon Foster and Sheri Parks are sophomore attendants. Jackie Getz is our freshman attendant. The homecoming game, a victory for us all was no fantasy. The "Feel of It" played to all our fantasies. Follow the yellow brick road, the senior float, won first prize, with junior's float coming in second. M-Club took the organizational prize this year.

The Parade

The Dance

I get 'em all

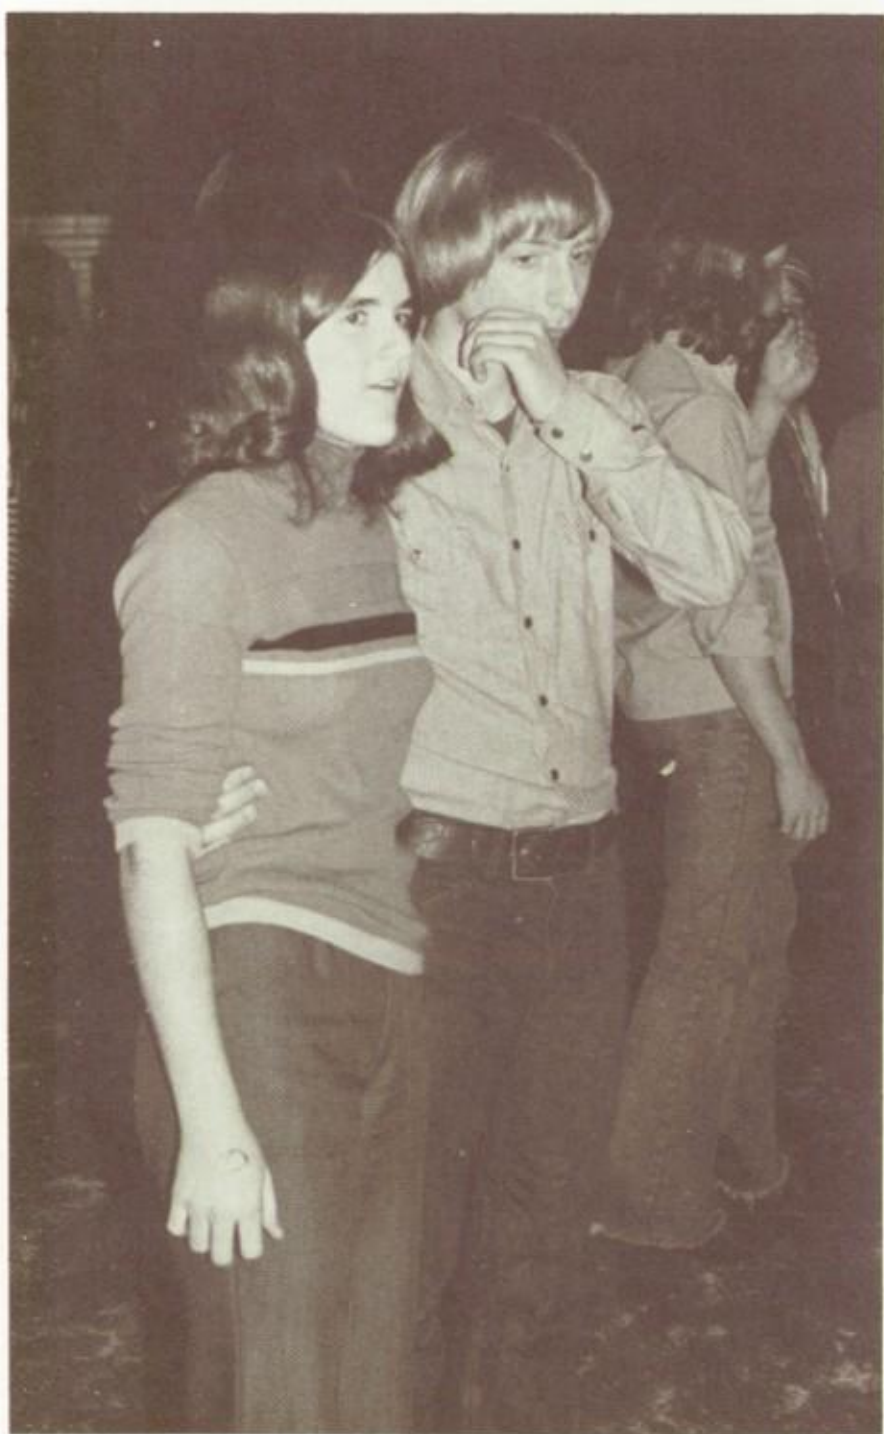

Boy is she great!

She's a tiger . . .

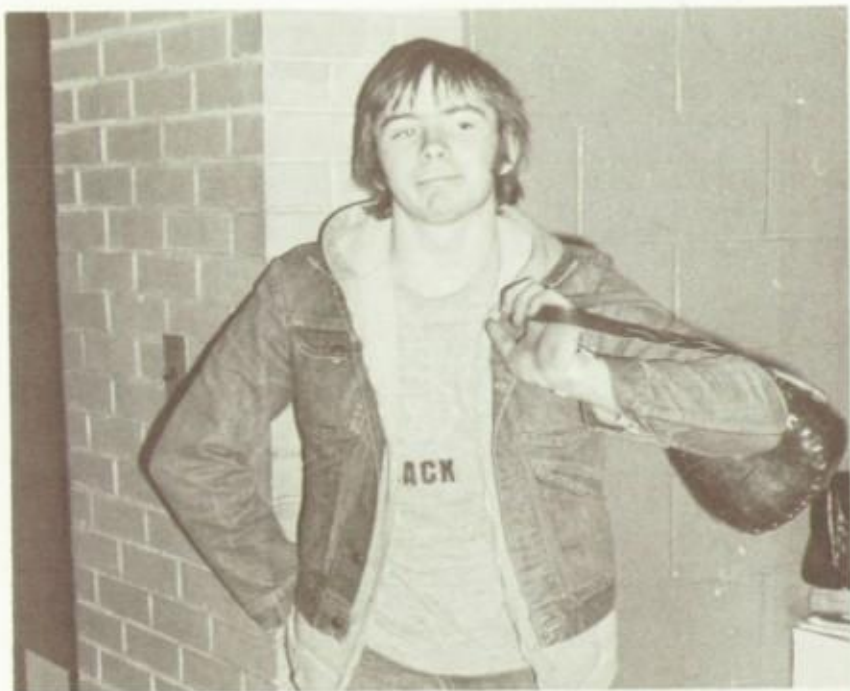

Future Writers of America.

Oh Don't cry, Craig.

Here I am! Over here!

The hooker of Main Street.

I see you.

All together now.

These X-Rated gym movies are too much.

I'm so ashamed.

The closer you get, the worse she looks.

Writing notes again, Janet?

Zombies in the night.

Look out or I'll bust you in the mouth!

What do you think of new Purina Dog Chow?

Just wait till after school.

Welcome to the faculty, Dirck!

Such enthusiasm.

You're disgusting.

Diamonds are a boy's best friend.

Watch it, I'm cool.

Hi, my name's Bozo.

Mrs. Walker has finally cracked up.

Bubble head.

Maxie as usual.

I've seen frizzies before, but this is ridiculous!

Is Joy sleep-walking again?

FLEX is No. 1 at Morton High!

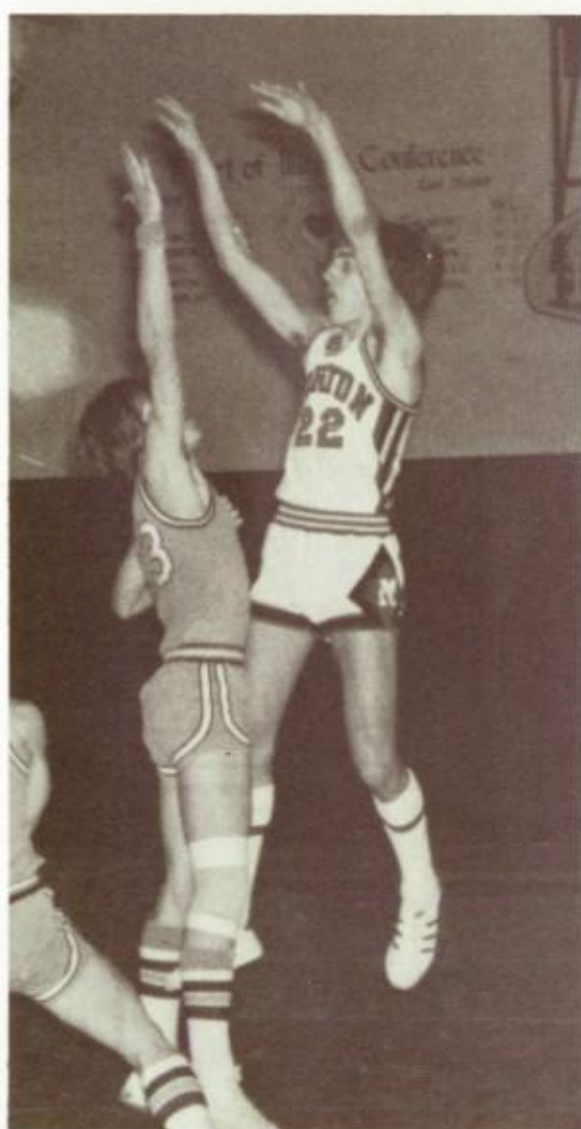

The bathroom is THAT way.

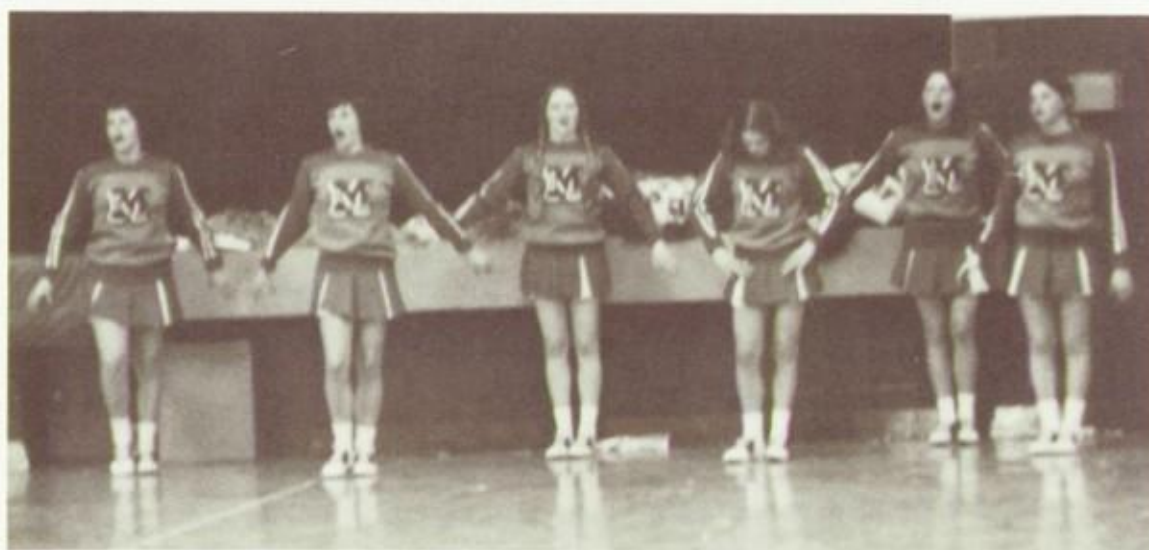

Mr. Turner is always late.

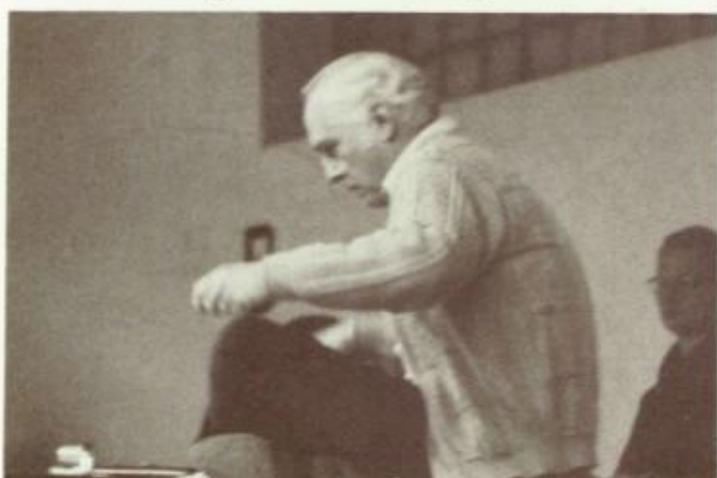

Getting out of that class is the best part of my day.

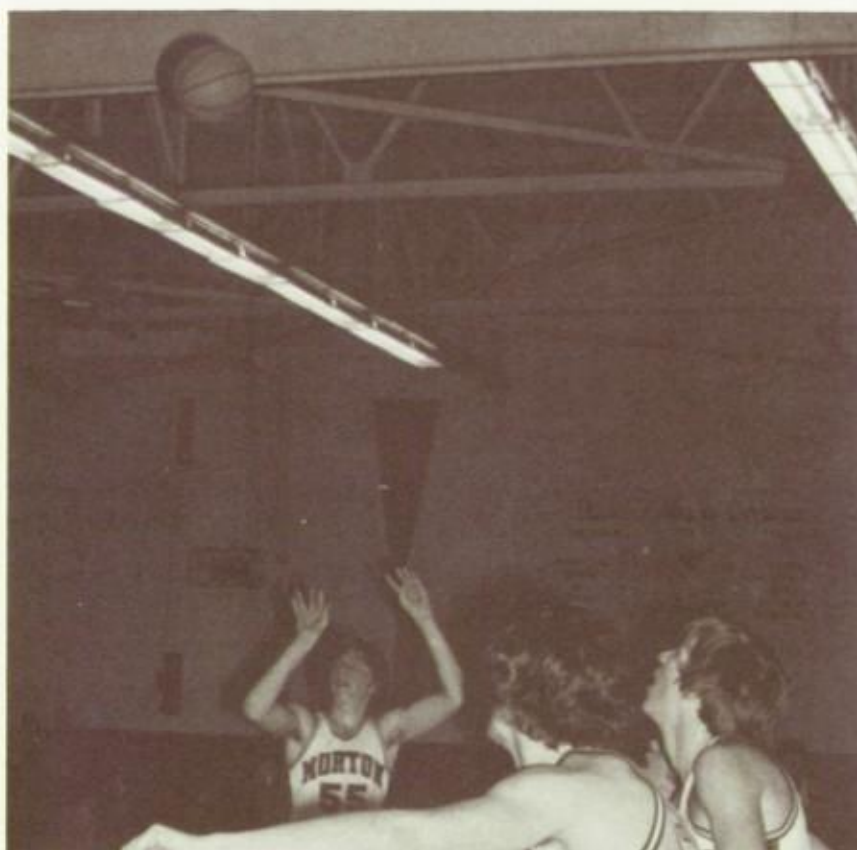

Dave gets that Life-Boy lift.

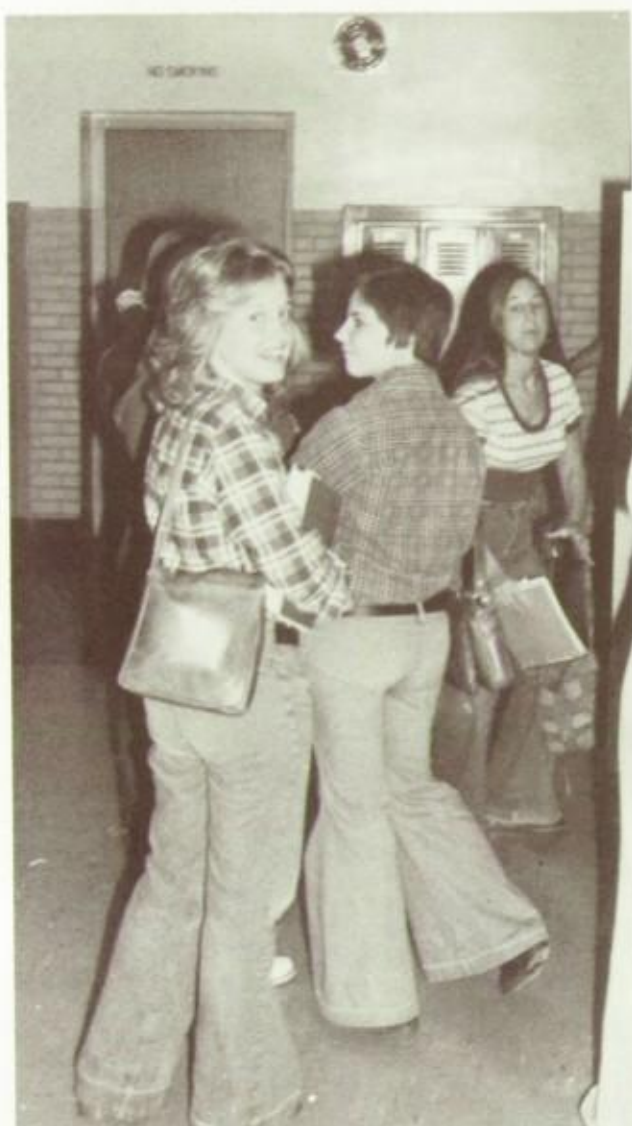

OH Oh, Cherie lost her contact lens.

Best seat in the house.

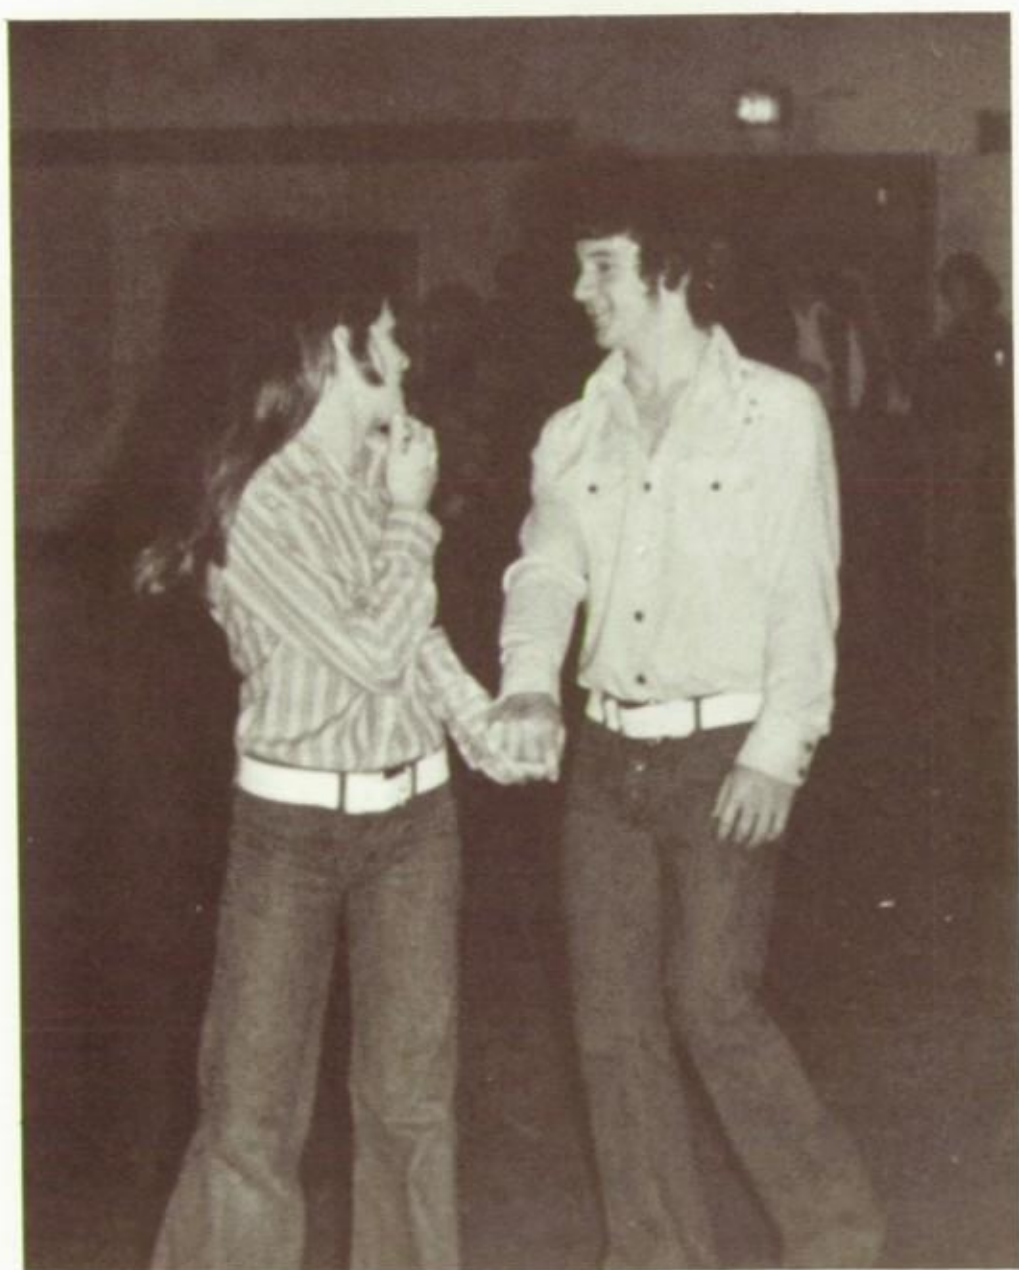

Todd uses his magic to make free throws.

Hi! My name is Tammy. What's yours handsome?

Make way for Mark and Judy.

But Gregg, I've got a terrible headache.

No Herb, that's not an elevator.

Free kick, anyone?

Is Curt busy,
Kandee?

Watch it Warren, that kid has hidden powers.

Burnt-out.

LANCE ROMANCE

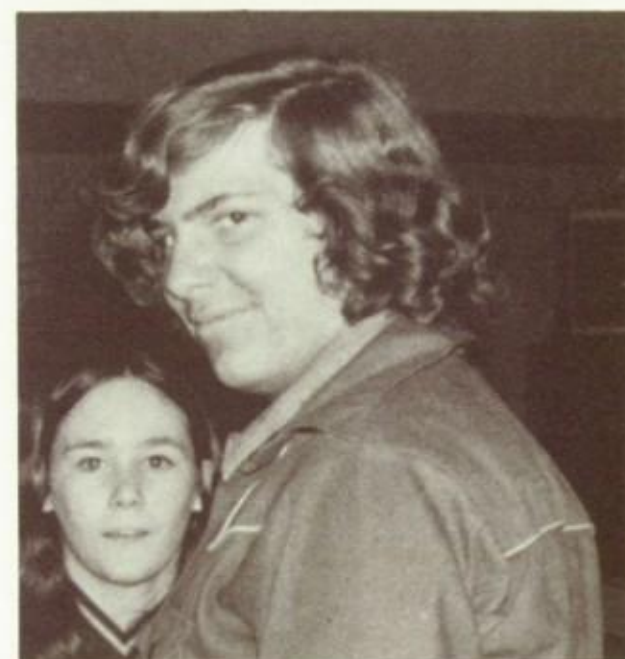

They're not exactly Black Sabbath.

OH MY! Girls, It's the law, hide it, QUICK!

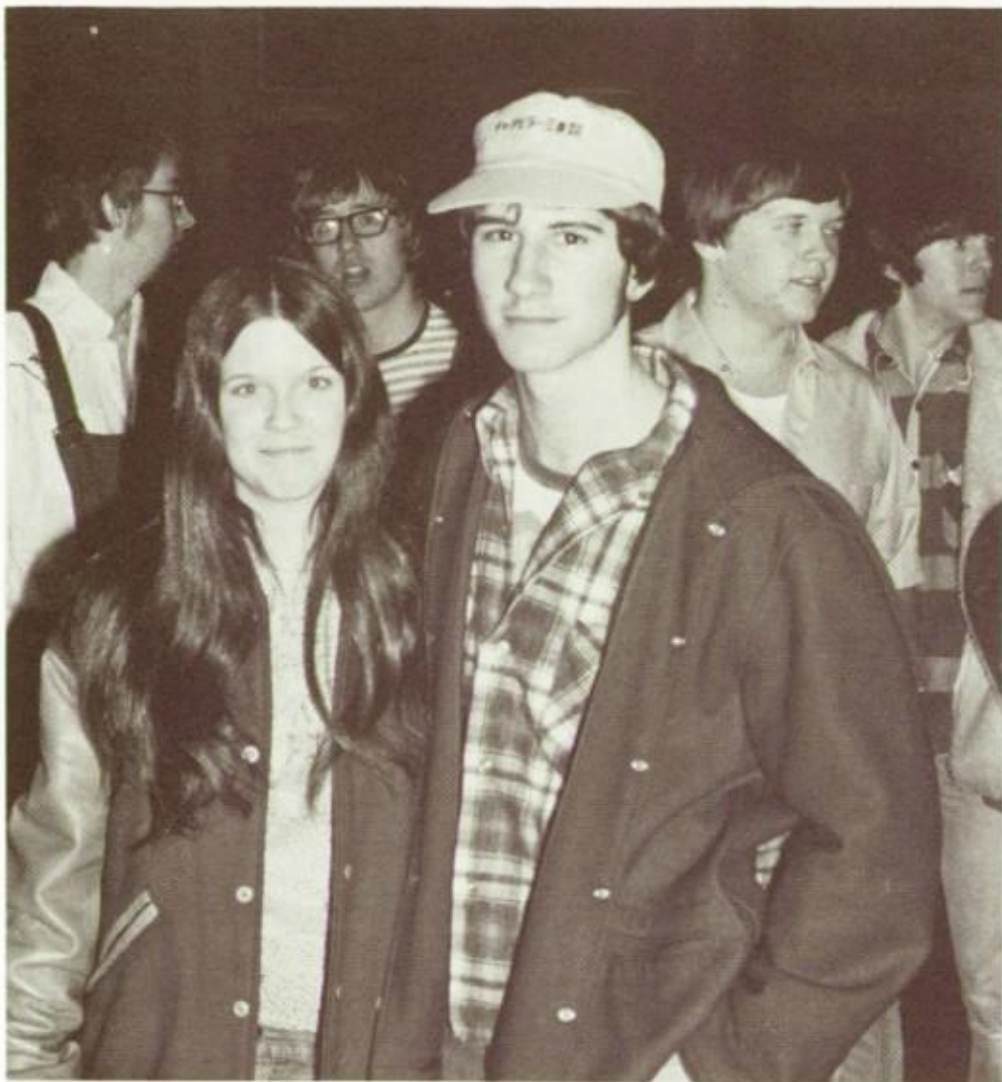

I've heard of girl-watching, but BOY-watching?

Who knows what evil lurks in MY heart? She'll never find out!

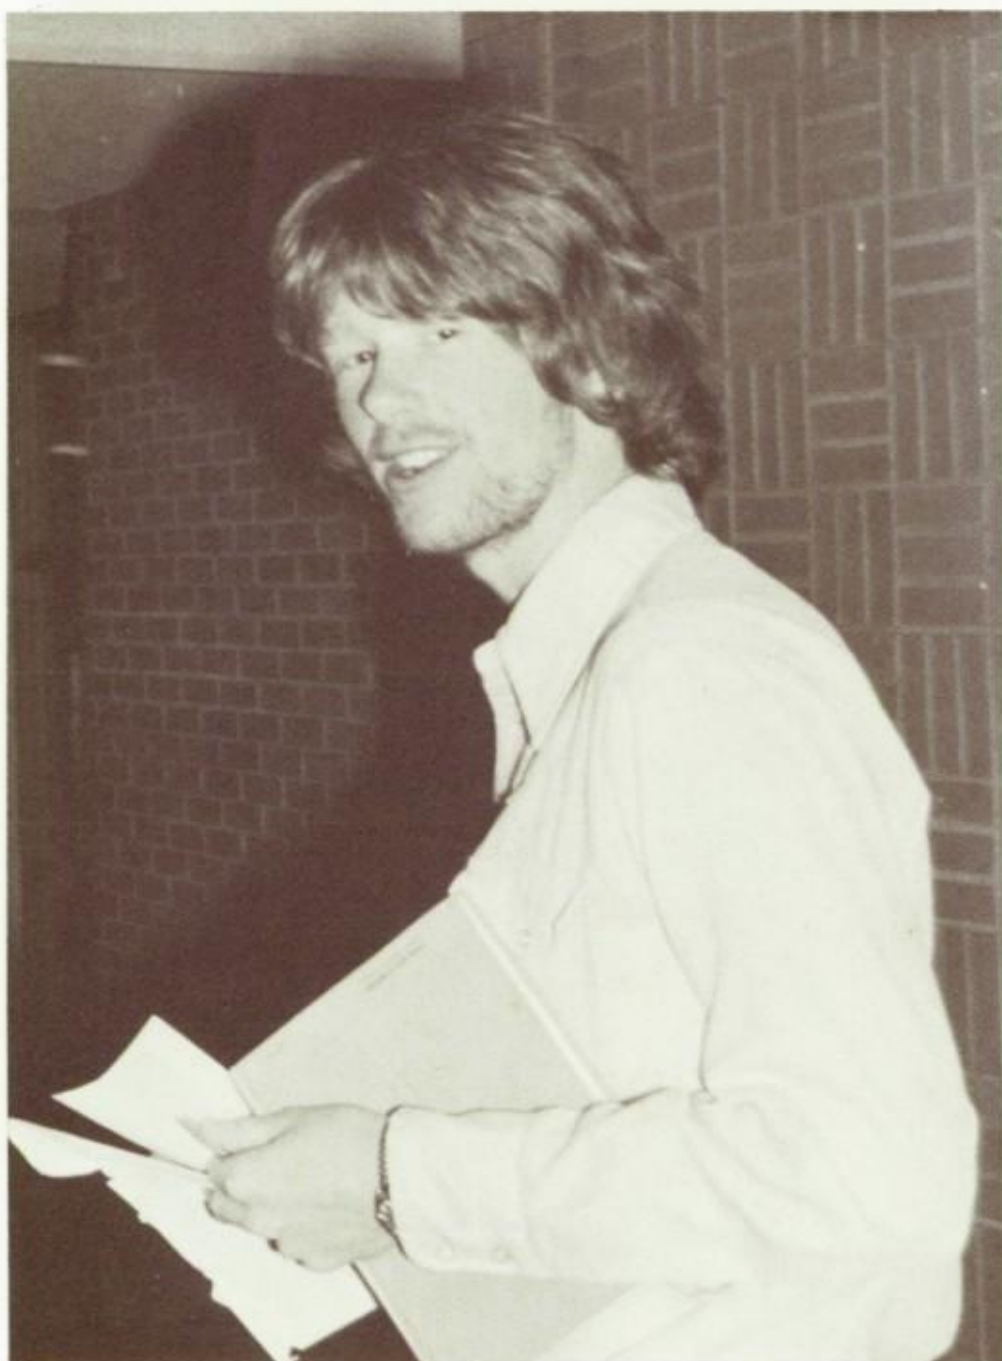

No. 33 stands on his head for the half-time show.

Why all smiles, Michelle?

I'm stuck-up, are you?

Craig Platt, come on down.

I said come along with me, baby.

O.K., who has the teacher's copy of the test?

Saturday night's alright for fightin'.

I'm sorry I fell asleep Mr. Policeman.

Ronny, wait up, sweetie pie!

Cody and his friends beat to the music.

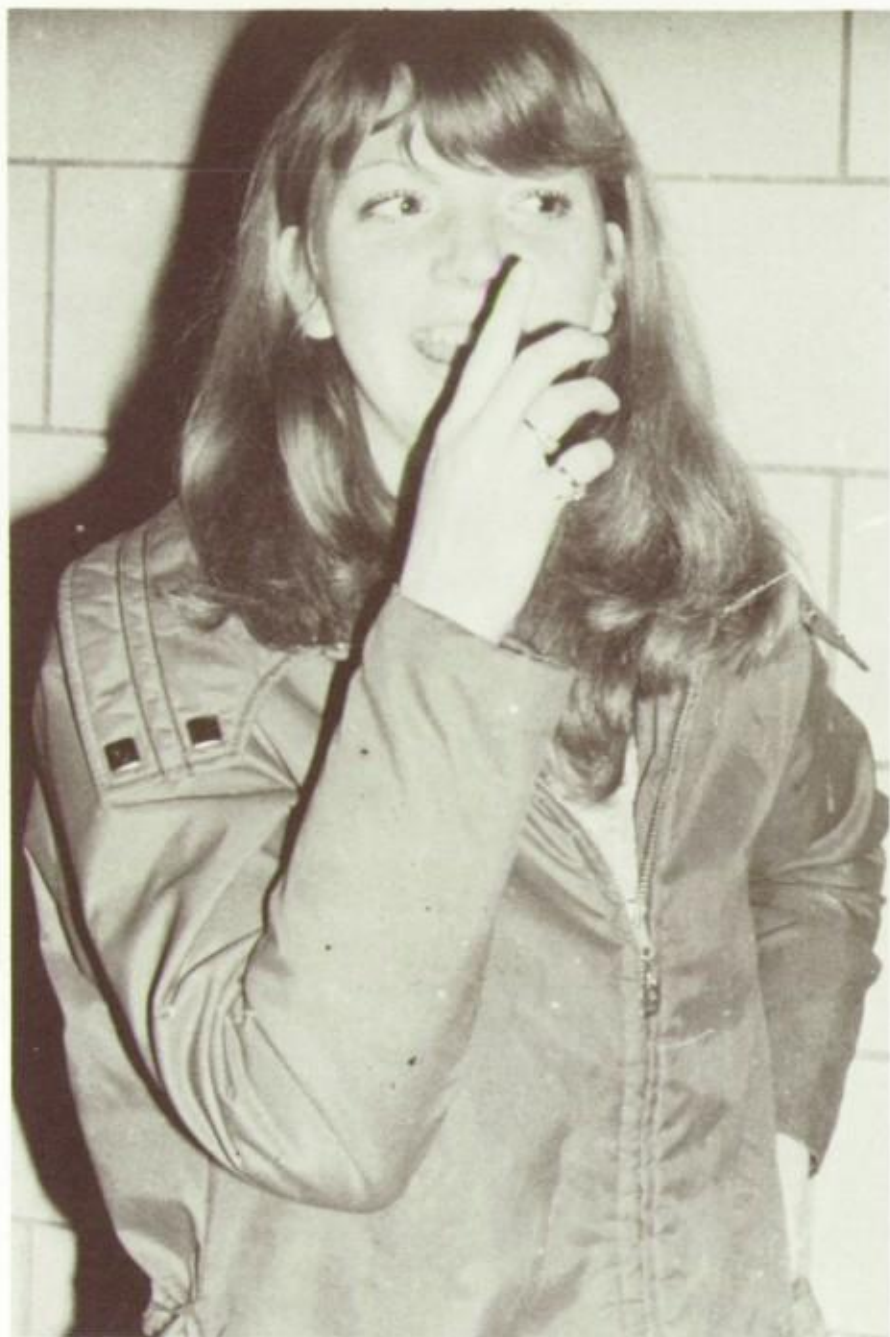

Even teachers girl watch.

Hey guy, come here, she wants to meet you.

It is unanimous.

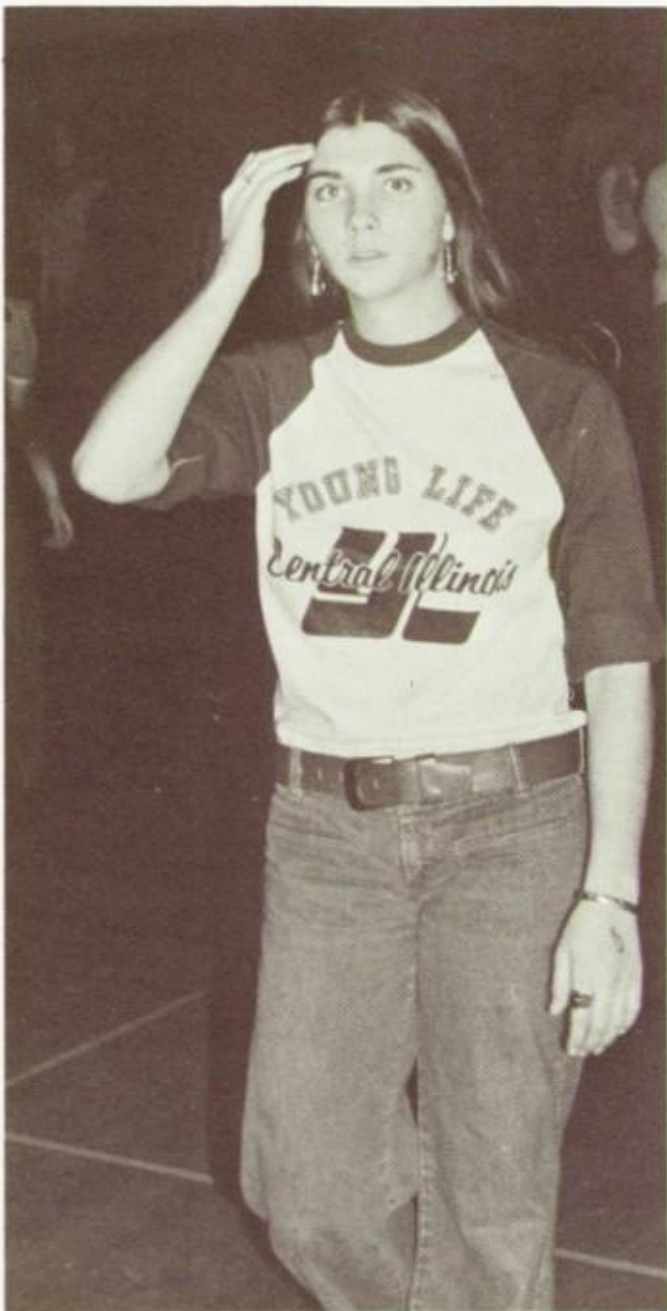

A-A-A-CHOOO!

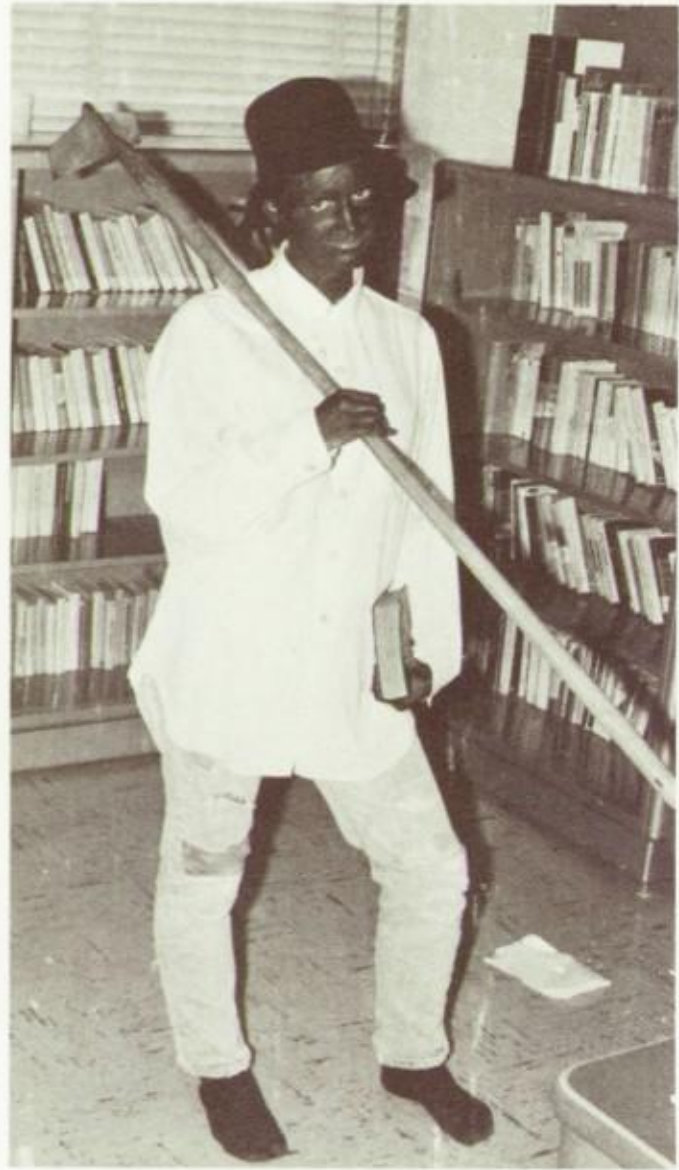

Lez be friends.

There is only one way, Lori, my child.

I pledge allegiance to the flag . . .

Black is beautiful.

Don't worry, it's Diet Pepsi.

Fight? Where's the fight?

Don't look at me in that tone of voice.

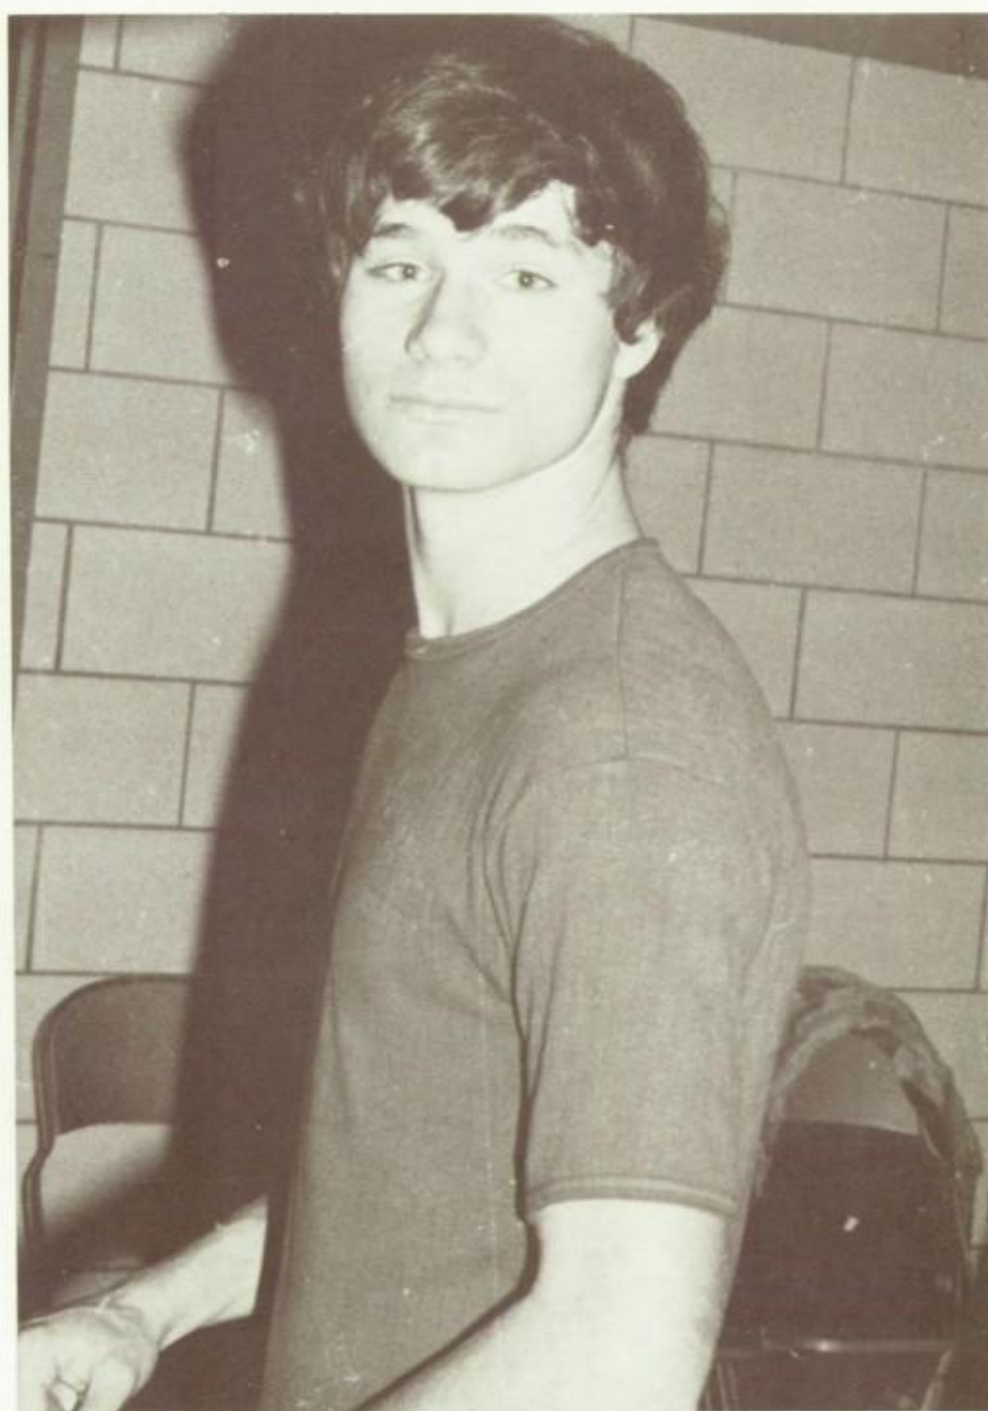

I brought the kegger.

They don't look TOO bored, do they.

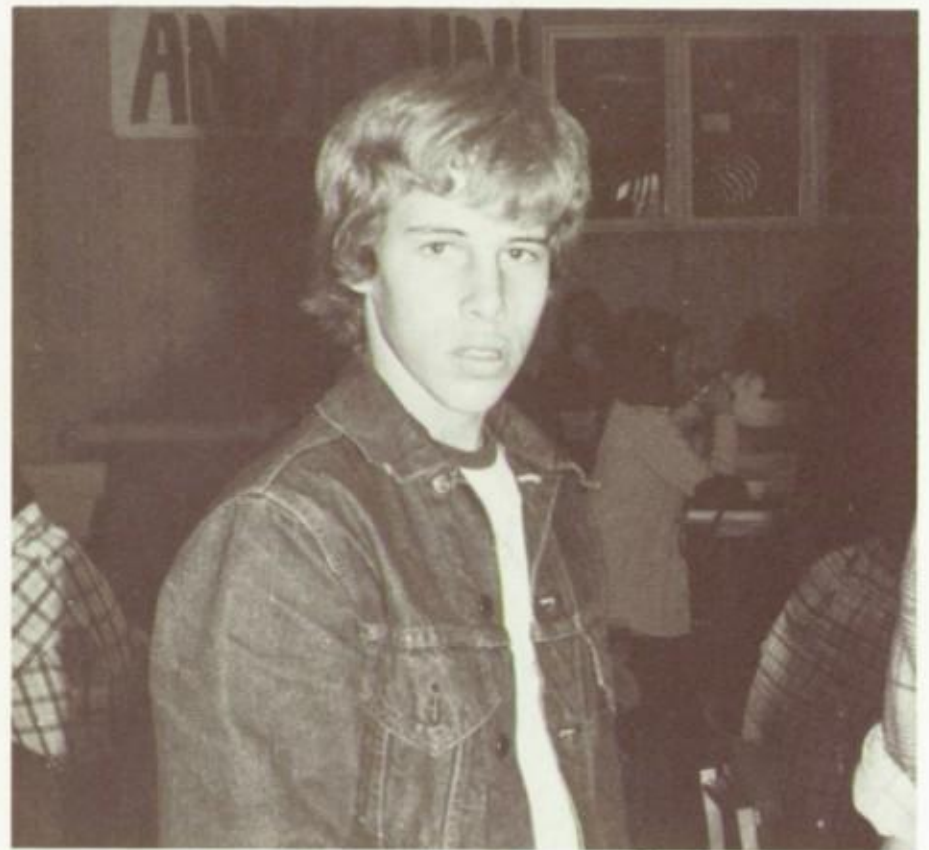

Now THAT'S talent.

I'm so lonesome I could cry.

Yabba rips out another pair of pants.

What! A party with no refreshments.

Can you spot the Camel Filters smoker?

The Drill-team boogie.

And they say strange things go on in the girl's locker room!

You can have this job for all I care . . .
I QUIT!

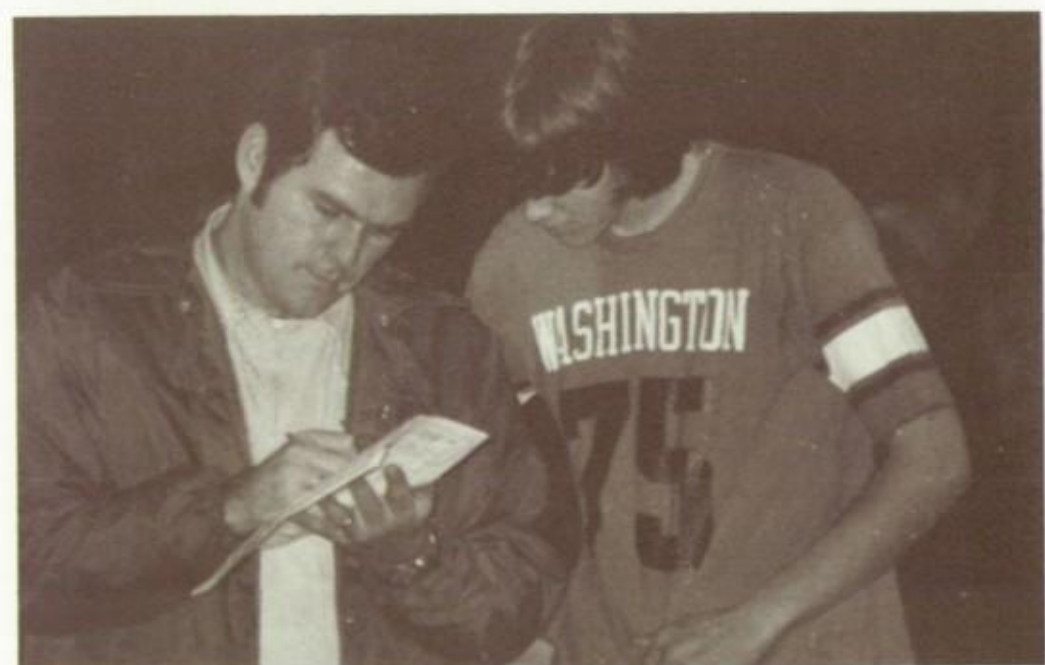

I know that you told me to smile, but this is the best I can do.

Drink much!

Closing your eyes doesn't make the camera go away.

Oh, that poor, mixed-up kid.

G.A.A. TURNABOUT 1975

Hold your breath cause down we go into the Undersea World of Neptune, this year's theme for turnabout. GAA sponsors this annual event each year. Pictures were taken in front of a sunken ship. Faculty and students danced to the music of "Genesis Rock". Other undersea attractions included the treasure chest, octopus, and an aquarium.

And the band played on.

Ain't love GRAND?

An intellectual conversation.

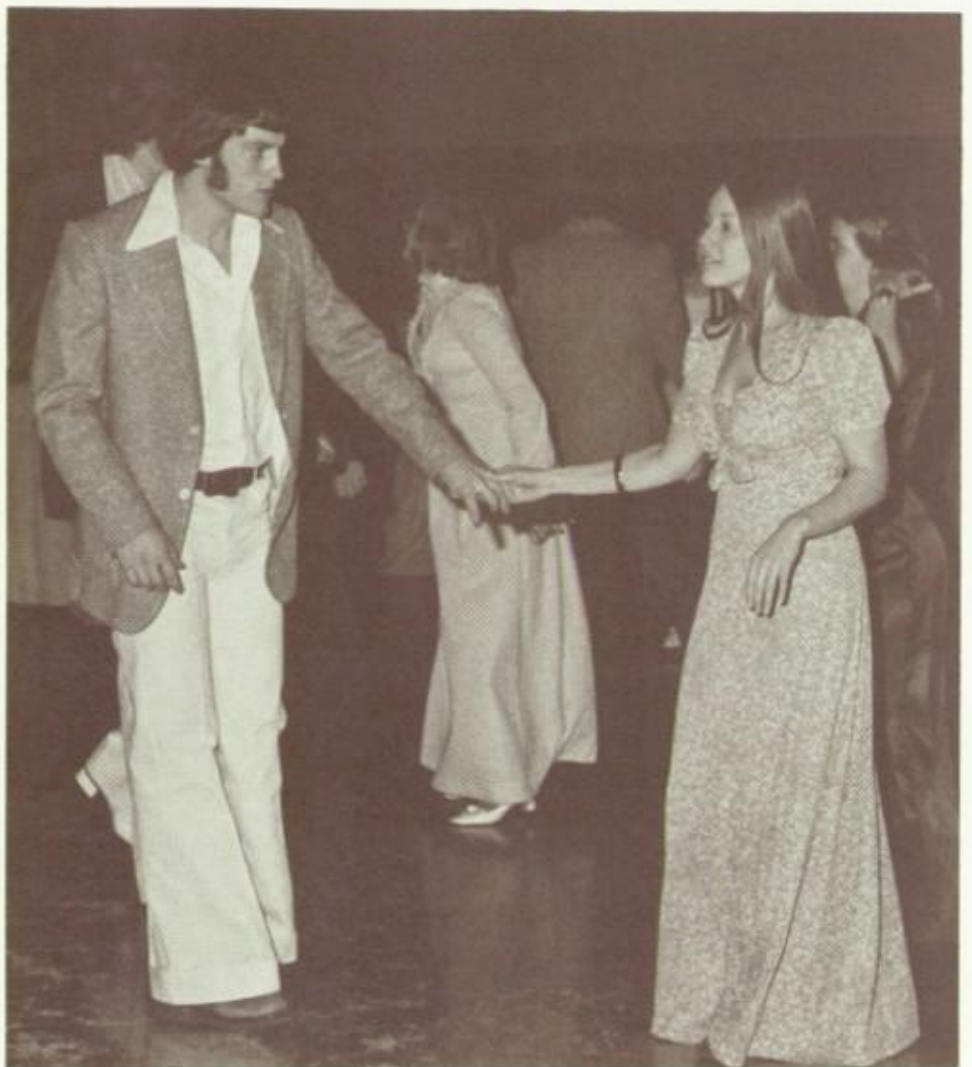

Lori, you have something on your chin.

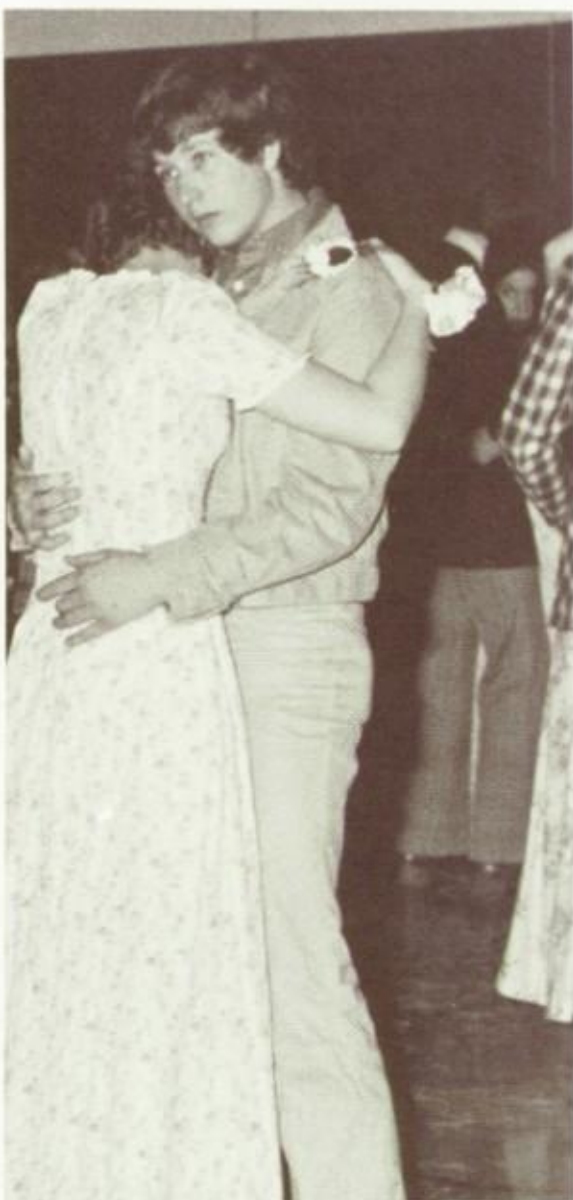

What's everybody looking at?

What is she doing now?

Who are you looking at Valerie?

I think she fell asleep.

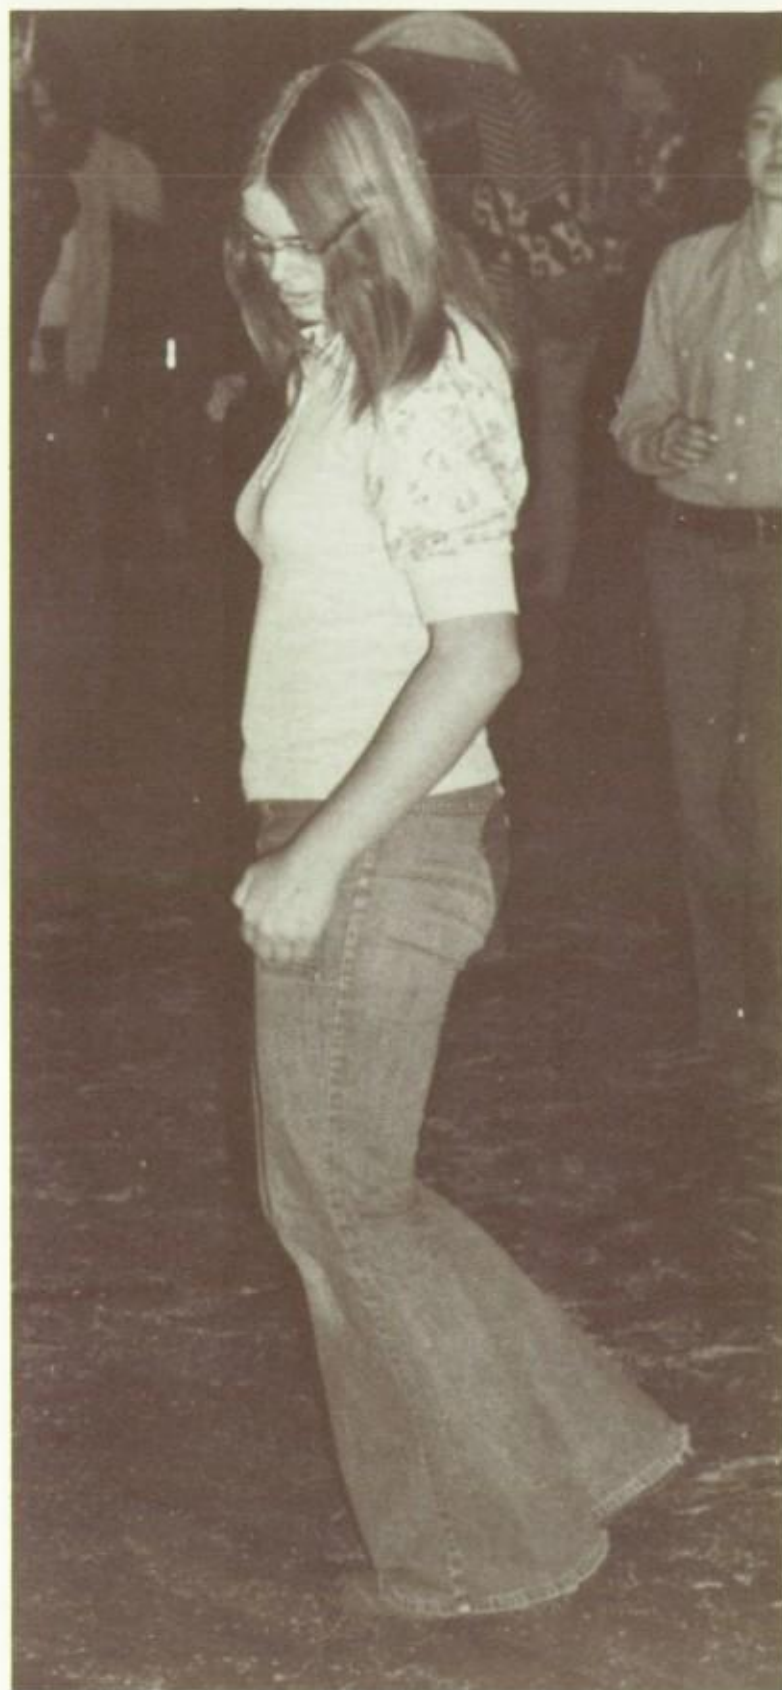

Gotta look these guys over good.

We want a party, anything just to break the boredom.

What a ham!

Oh Connie, you've offended her.

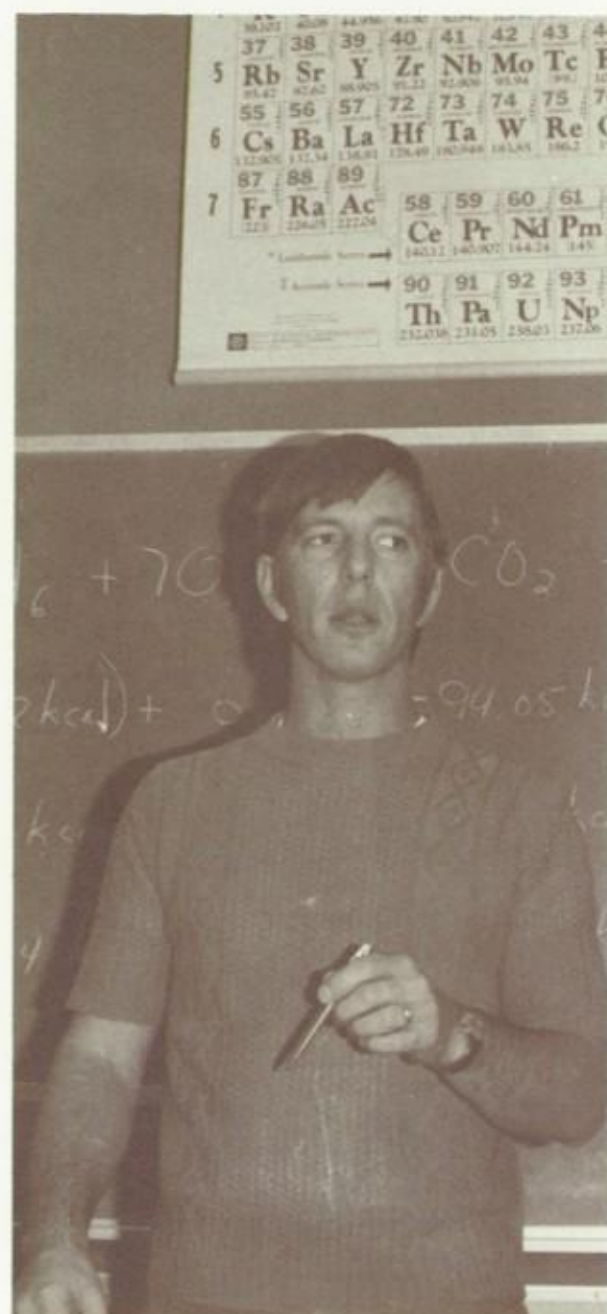

Hey Seniors, remember when YOU were the green people?

Poor, helpless children wandering aimlessly around the streets.

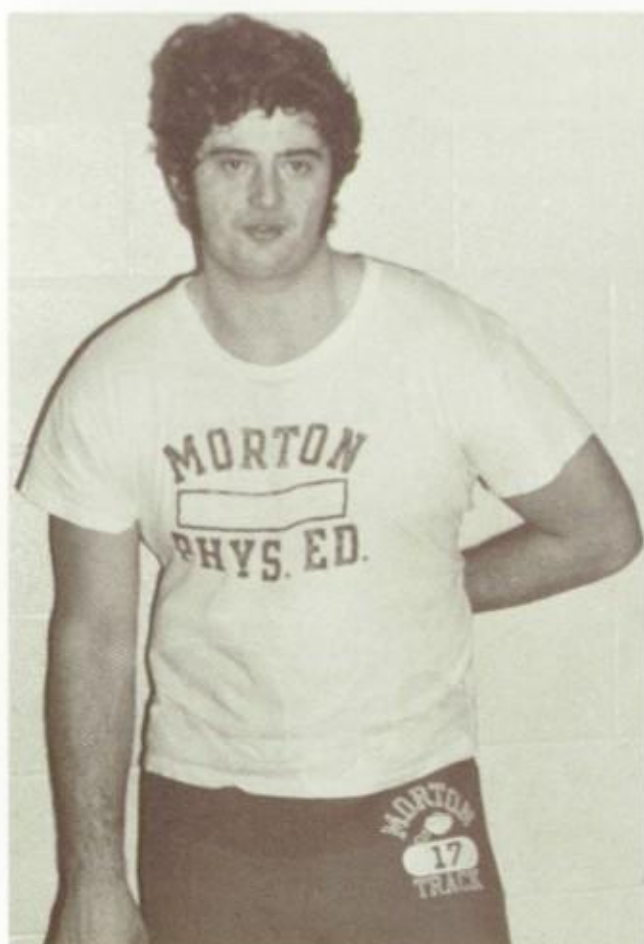

Oh, it was so good!

And last year on my skiing trip . . .

Well, who can I suspend today?

It's too late to hide it now, John!

Connie's mad because she copied off me and I flunked!

Varsity cheerleaders back to front; Heidi Zimmerman, Crystal Ackerman, Renee DeSollar, Kim Strunk, Cherie Wenninger, and Teri Hauter.

This Year's cheerleaders brought spirit from the bleachers into the air. They cheered onto victory and in some cases brought their spirits up even when defeat was present.

They made signs for the halls, and the horse shoe for the football games.

They were coached by Mrs. Waibel.

Junior Varsity cheerleaders top to bottom; Pam Perdue, Stacy Schild, Ruth Rapp, Cathy Carroll, Jacky Morgan, and Carole Dexheimer.

“LET US ENTERTAIN YOU”

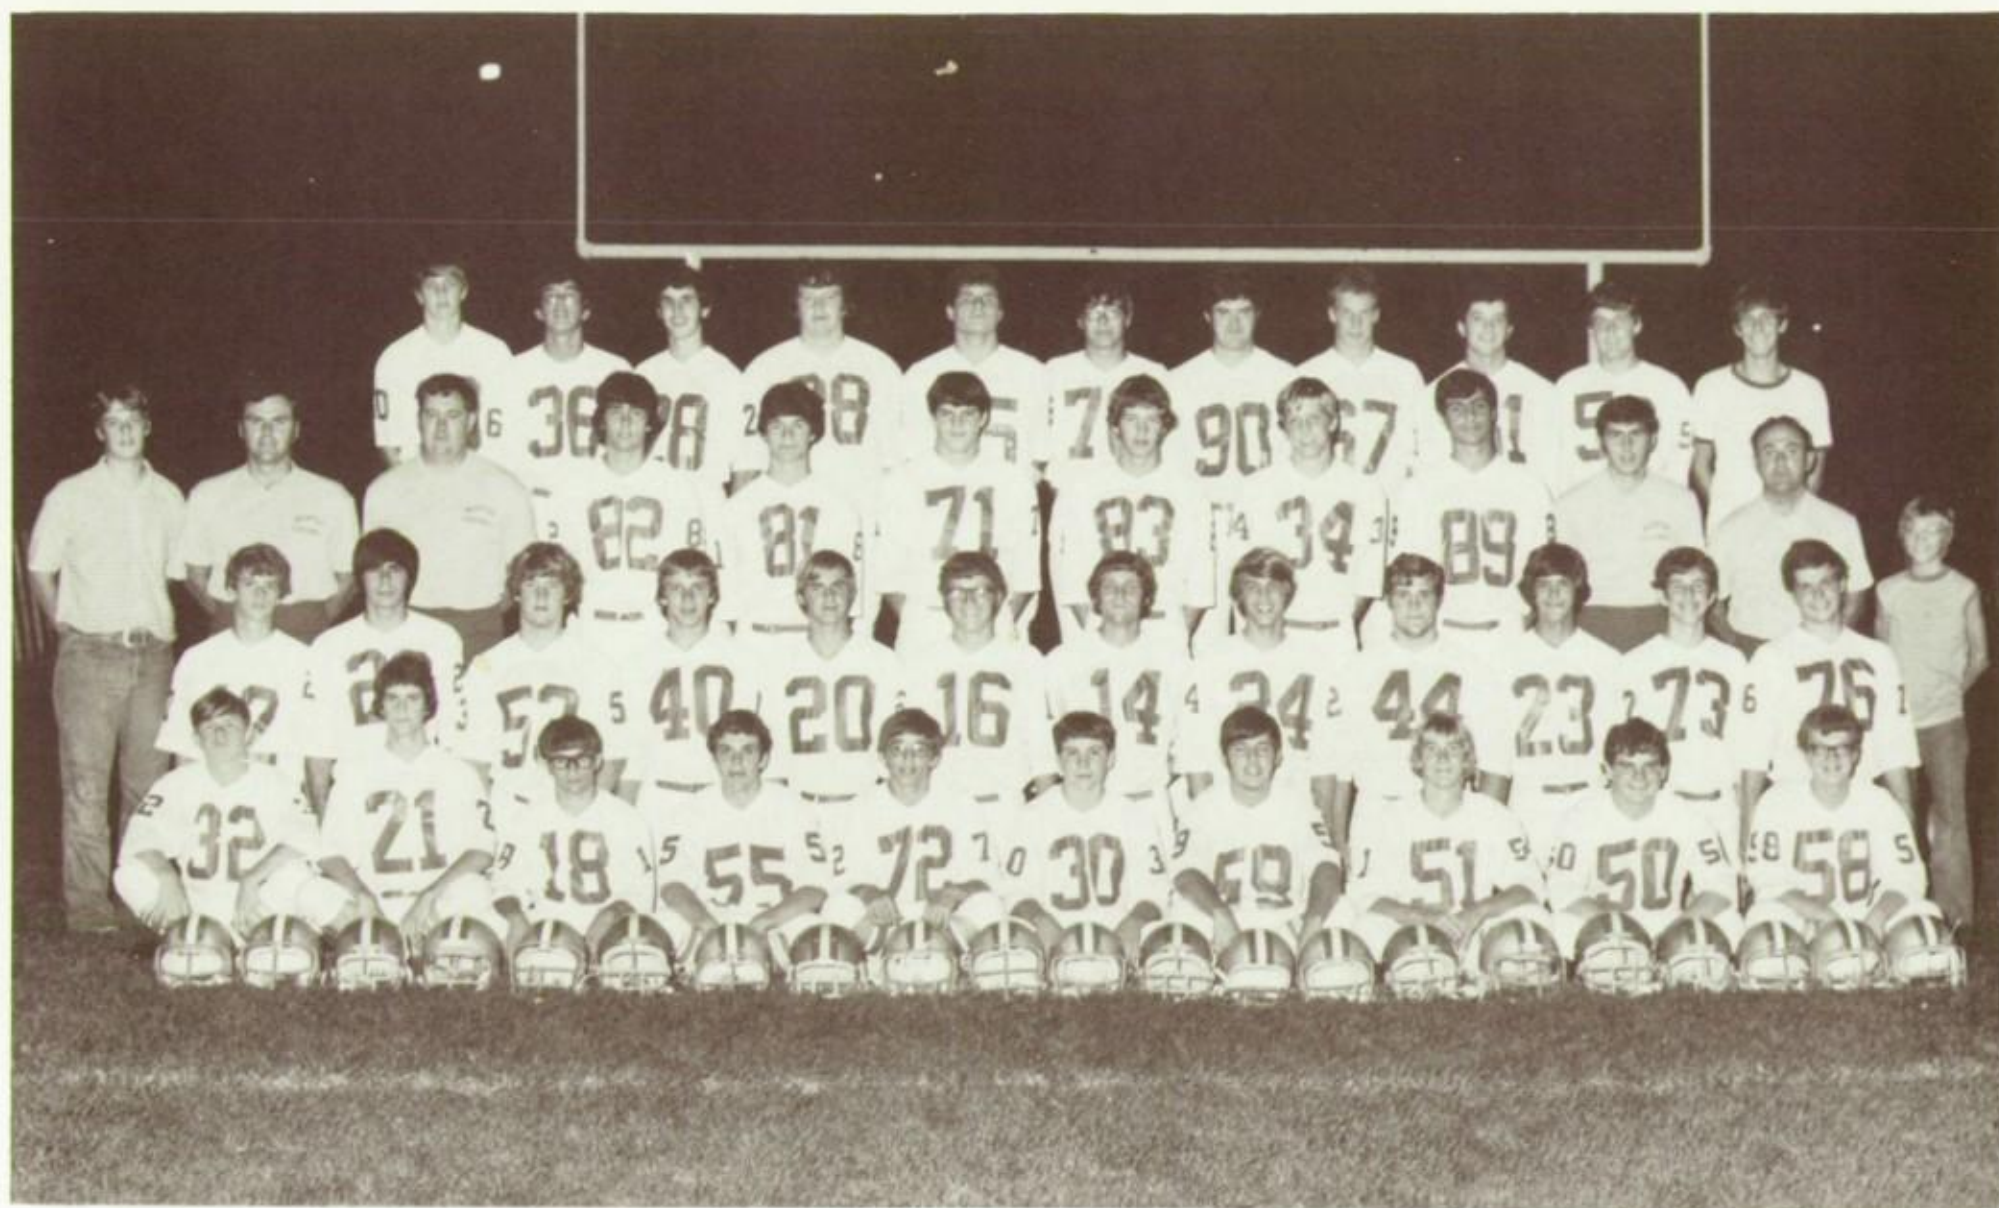

The 1974-75 Drill Team were proud to be a part of the school spirit. During the football season the girls worked hard putting up signs and making up routines to be performed at the half times with the band.

The team performed new routines at all home basketball games and received first place in the Peoria area Santa Claus Parade.

The Drill team sponsored two dances to raise money for their new uniforms.

Leading the Drill team to a successful year were co-captains Leslie Schild and Amy Forsyth.

1974 HEART OF ILLINOIS CONFERENCE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS

One often reads or hears about a coach who takes a team from the depths of failure and chaos and in a few short years makes it the team to beat. To most people this coach is merely a dream, a hope. Three seasons ago, a man was hired to take over the Morton football team to try to pick up and give it life, and maybe mold a competitor out of it.

That first season, this man showed some new ideas about football to this town, and to the players, but the season was little different than ever, the Potter's finishing with a 2-6-1 season record.

The very second year that the new coach was in command of the Morton team, he led it to a 7-3 record, Morton's first winning season since 1948. The magic that Mortonites had hoped for was beginning to show and the rest of the year was talk of next year's prospects.

The 1974 season opened with Georgetown cancelling out of the Potter's, who are by this time better known and more frequently called the "Hogs", opener. This left Metamora for the first game. The Hogs tough defense held the Redbirds scoreless and Morton put on 16 points to win. From that game on throughout the rest of the season, the Potter's shutout five opponents, averaging 30.5 points per game while holding all eight of their regular season opponents to 5.8 points per game. The Potters finished first in the HOI Conference with a 7-0 (8-0 overall) record and continued into the first annual Illinois Prep State Tourney against Mornence, the Kankakee Valley Conference champs, 3rd in the polls. Morton, who had reached 5th in the polls came back from a 8-6 halftime deficit and blew the game wide open, beating Mornence 28-14 in front of an estimated 4,500 jubilant fans.

Although the Hogs were edged out in their final game against Quincy C. B., they finished with a 9-1 overall record for the entire year and brought a spirit to the school and to this town, unheard of for any sport. The man, the magic, chiefly responsible for all this is Head Coach Gene Muzzarelli.

DANDY DOZEN ON TO VICTORY

Morton Girl's Tennis Team, coached by Mrs. Carol Stuckey finished another successful season, ending the season 7-3. They placed second in the Morton Invitational tournament bowing to Central Catholic. Tennis '74 meant long practices in all kinds of weather, Thelma, a few defeats, many victories, and most of all a lot of fun.

SIT DOWN, JOHN!

Yup, I got away with it.

My teeth have to be their whitest.

See, your tongue is no better-looking than mine.

Not now honey, they are looking.

Please hold it down Heidi, some people need their sleep.

Now who could deny this? NO WAY!

Hey, get back. I am too cool for you!

I'm Allen Funt and you are on . . . that's right . . . CANDID CAMERA!

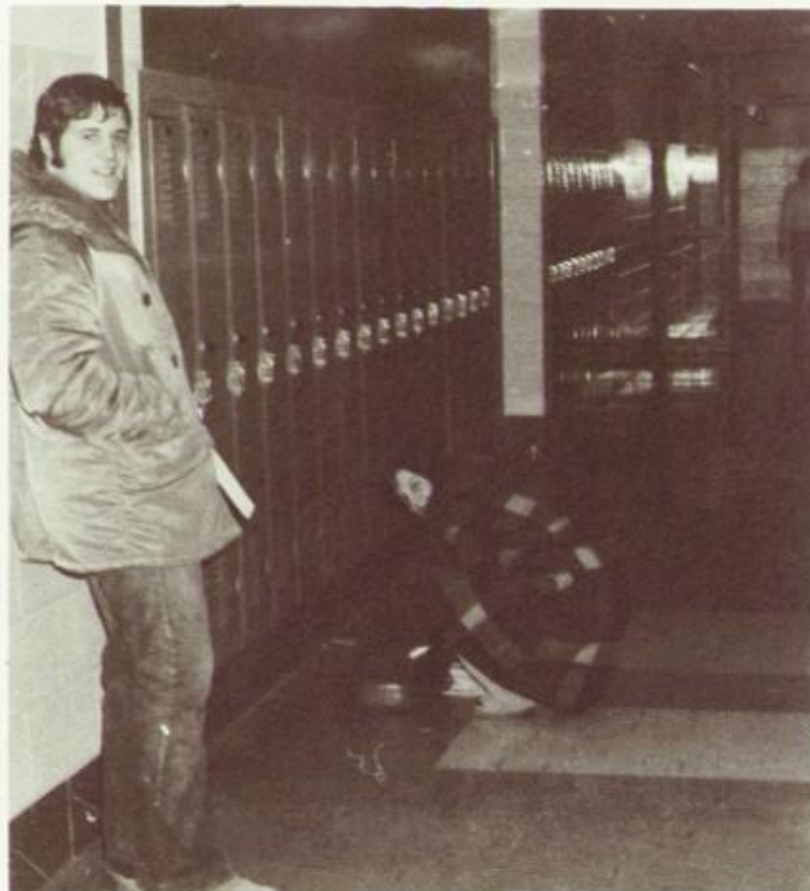

Someone help me! my upper plate is coming out!

Oh, where IS the bathroom?

Oooh, they are crawling down my back.

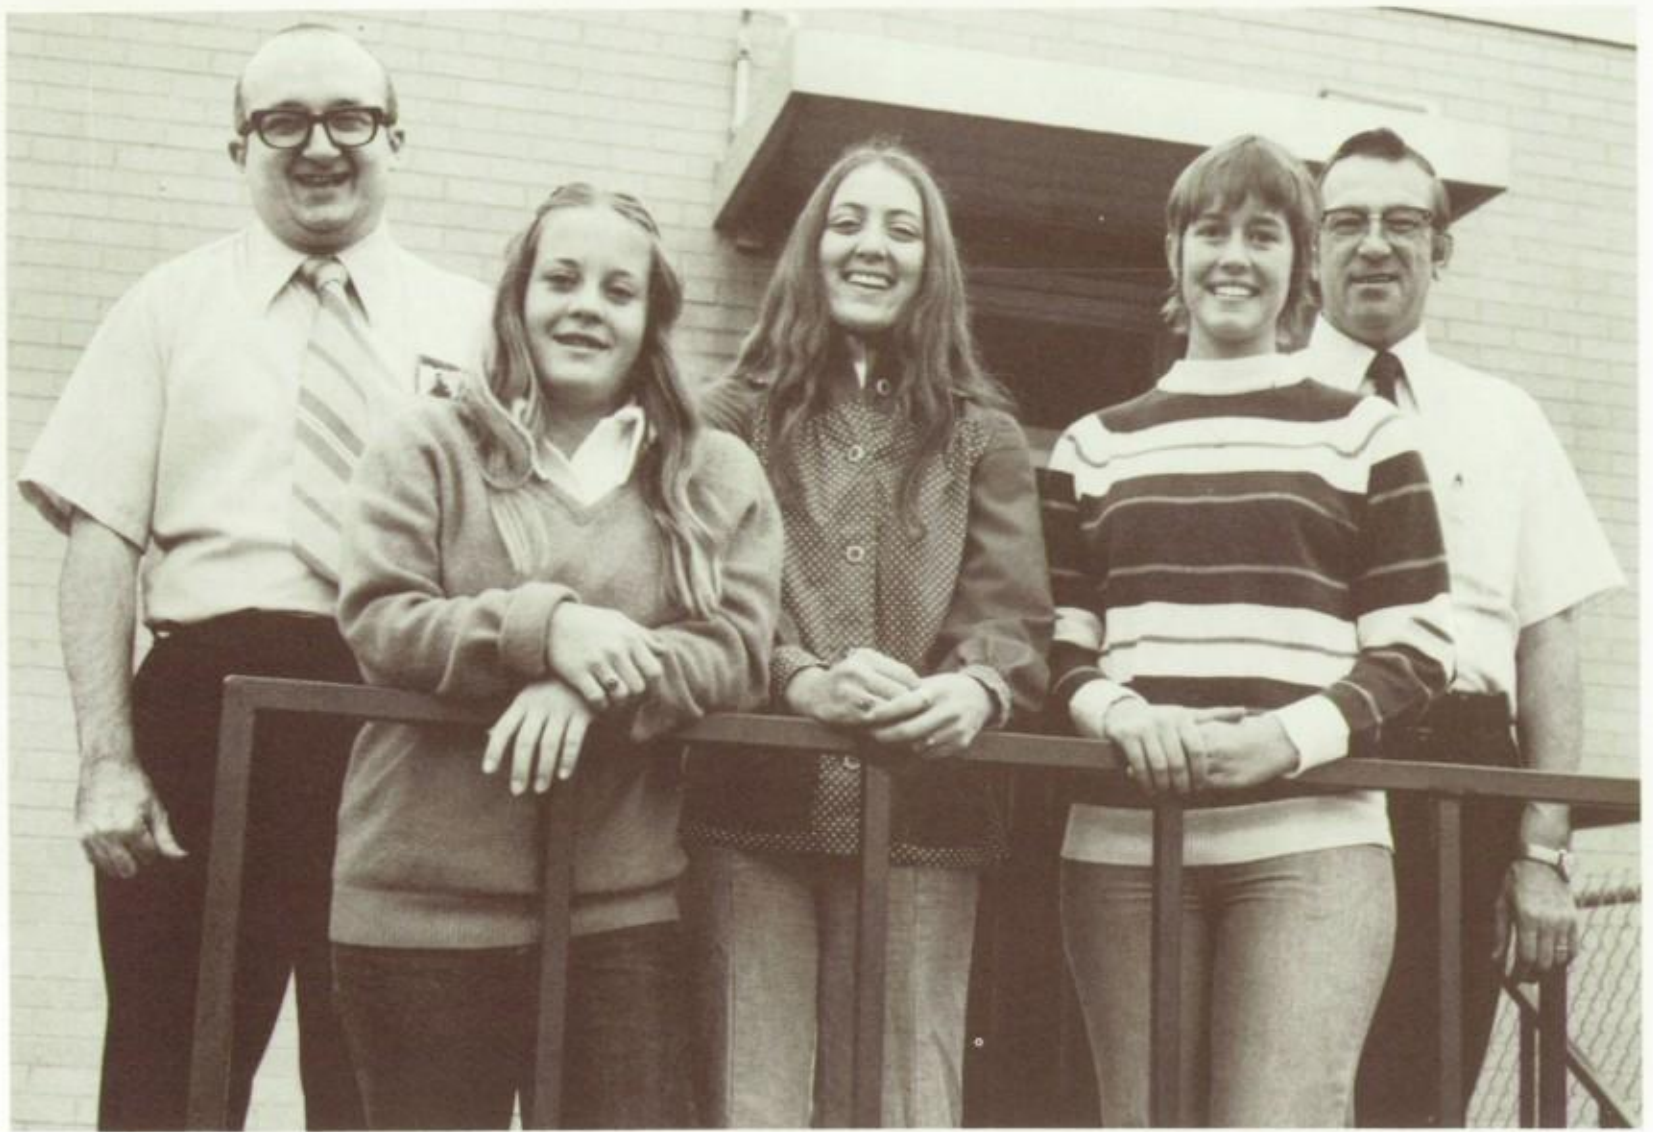

Chivalry is dead, Huh, Steve?

Hut, two, three, four, come on, move it out now.

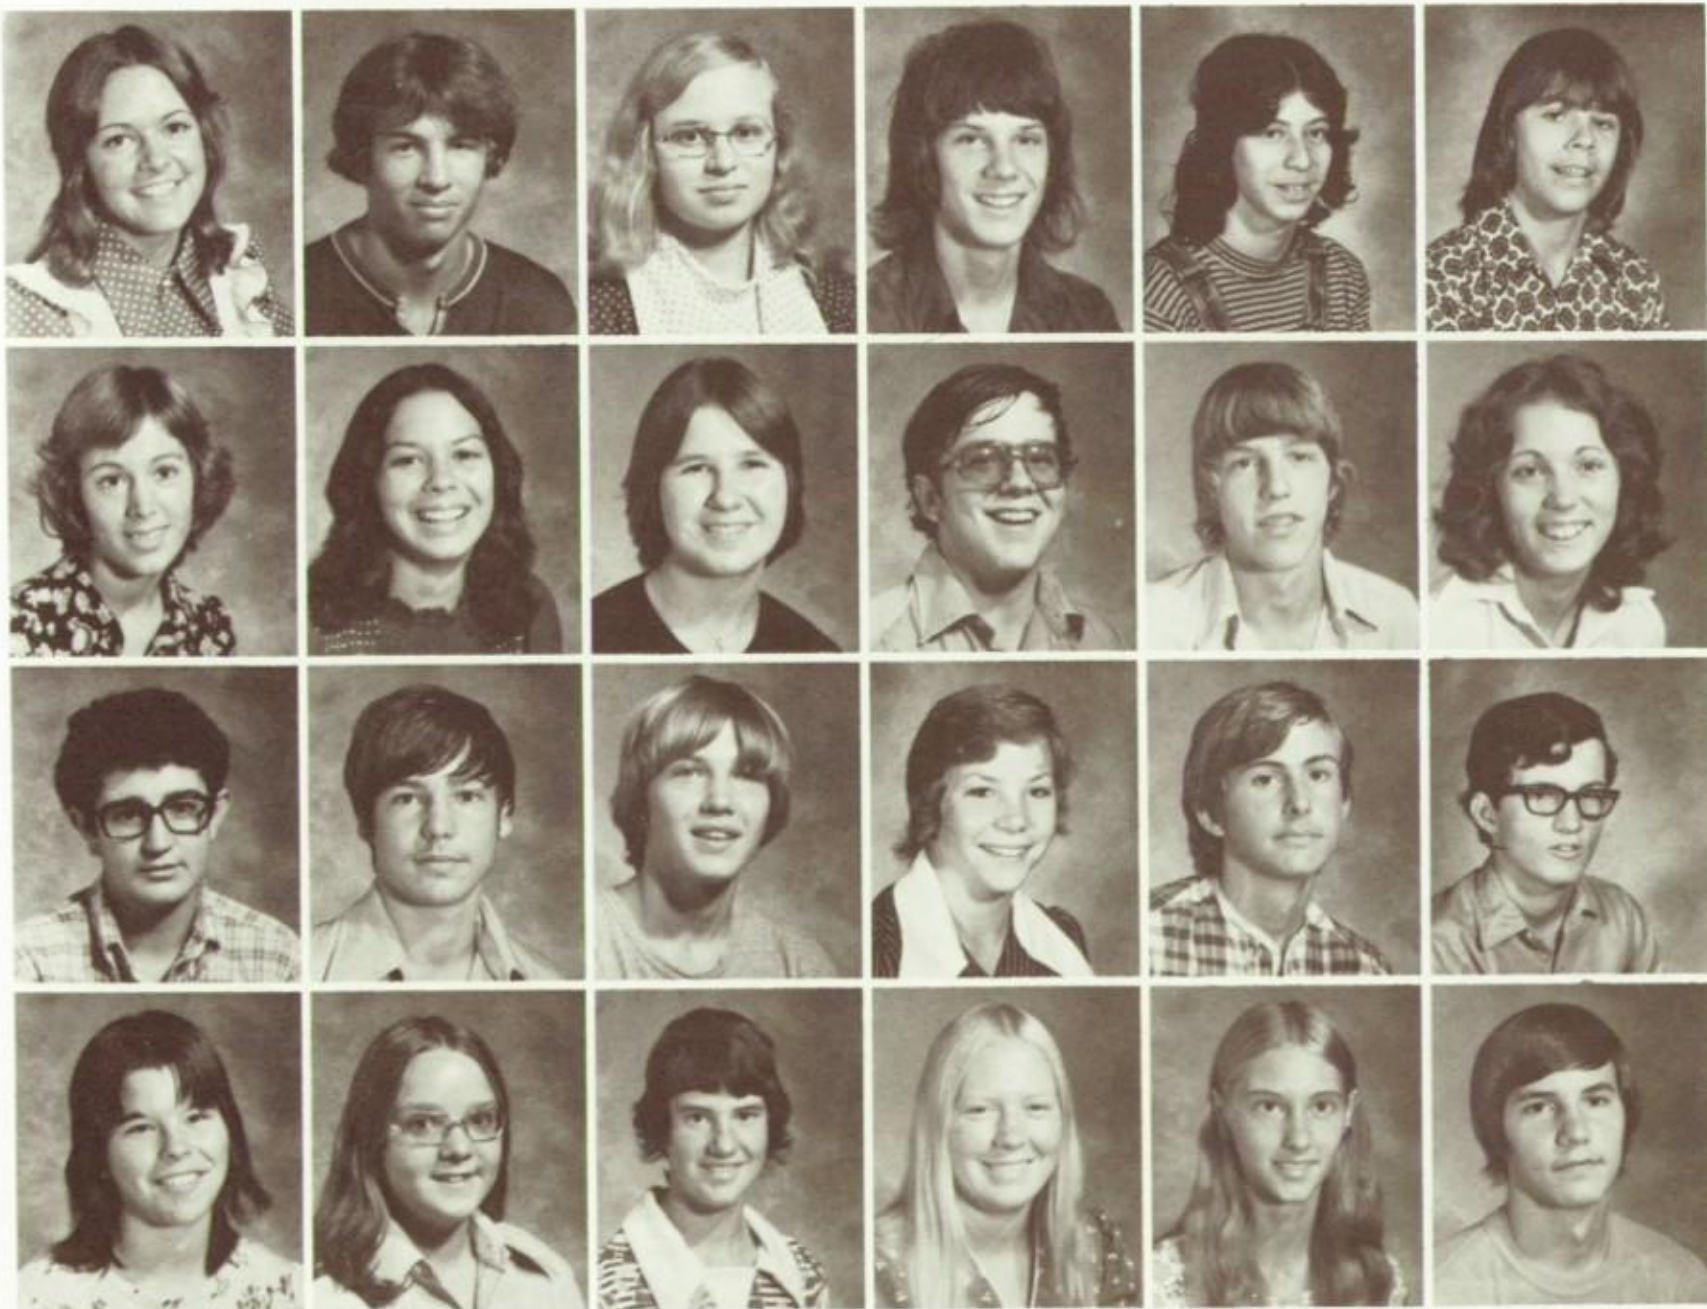

Here come the after effects of lunch.

ANOTHER RUNG OF THE LADDER

Another step towards women's liberation took place in the junior class this year with President Connie Martinie, Vice President Sue Yordy, and Secretary Mindy Wieneke. As always, junior class was responsible for prom and candy stand.

Wait till after school, Tim.

Mr. Kreager's evil eye.

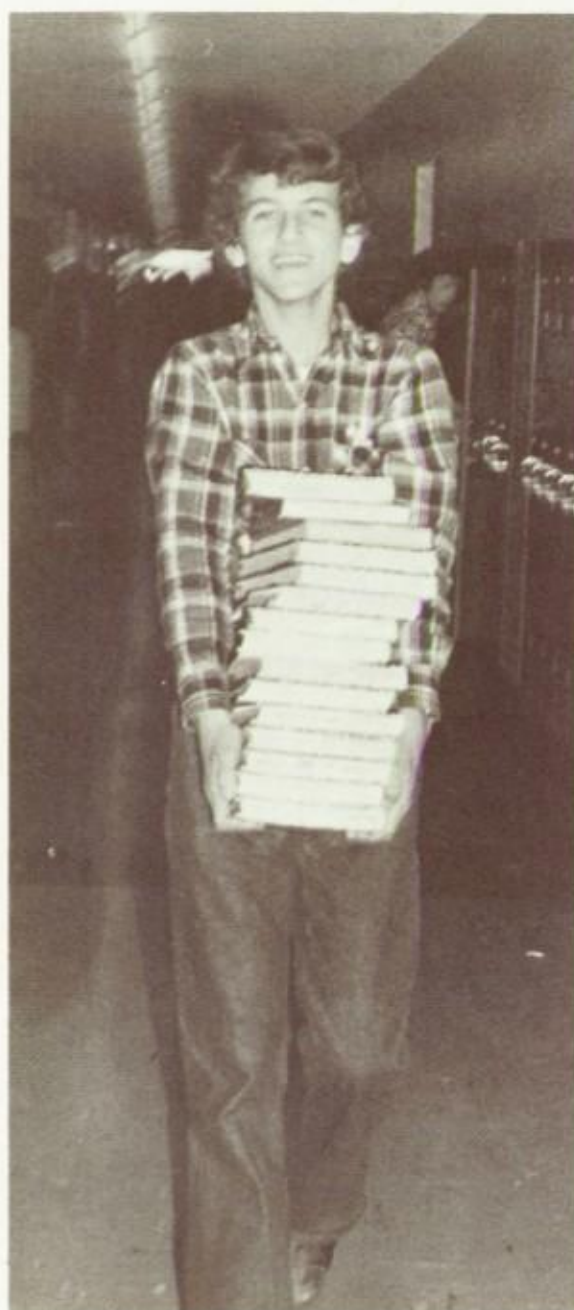

Ever tried to milk a donkey?

Hi, click, I'm click a robot!

I don't want to talk about it.

These books are just for my morning classes.

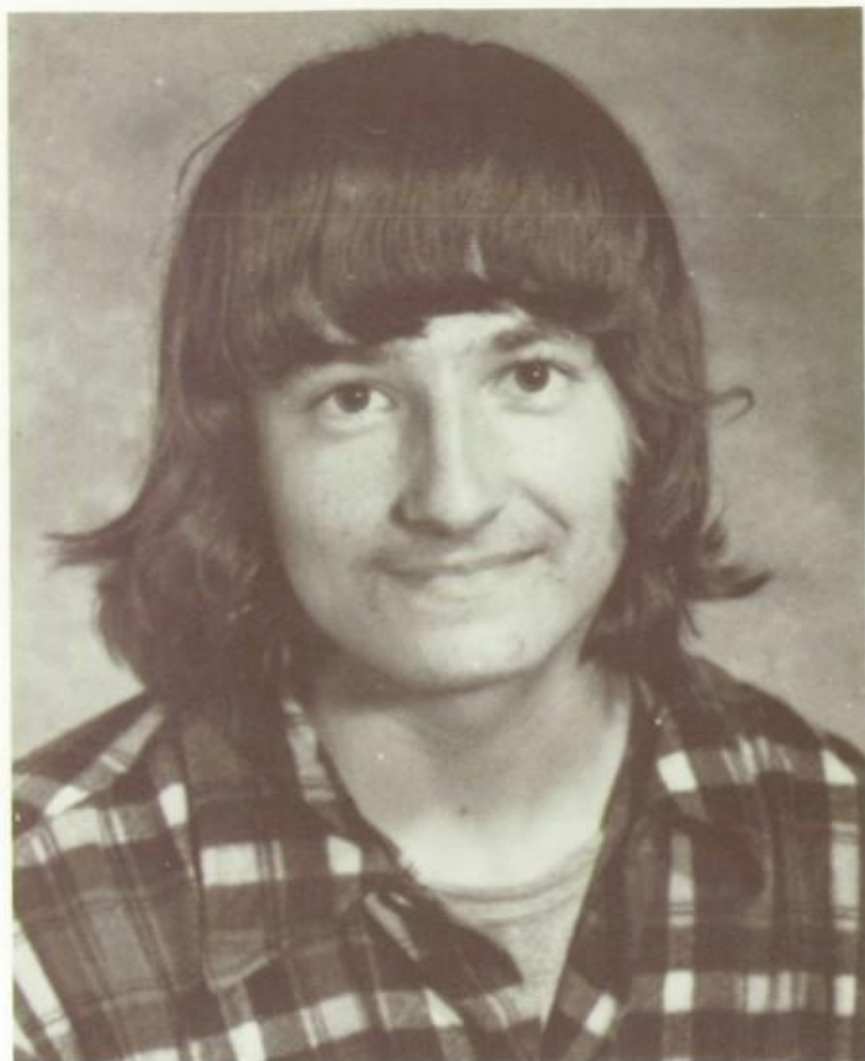

Help me make it through the day.

C'mon Jane, count out their change.

Well Norm, I say my girls could whip you guys anyday!

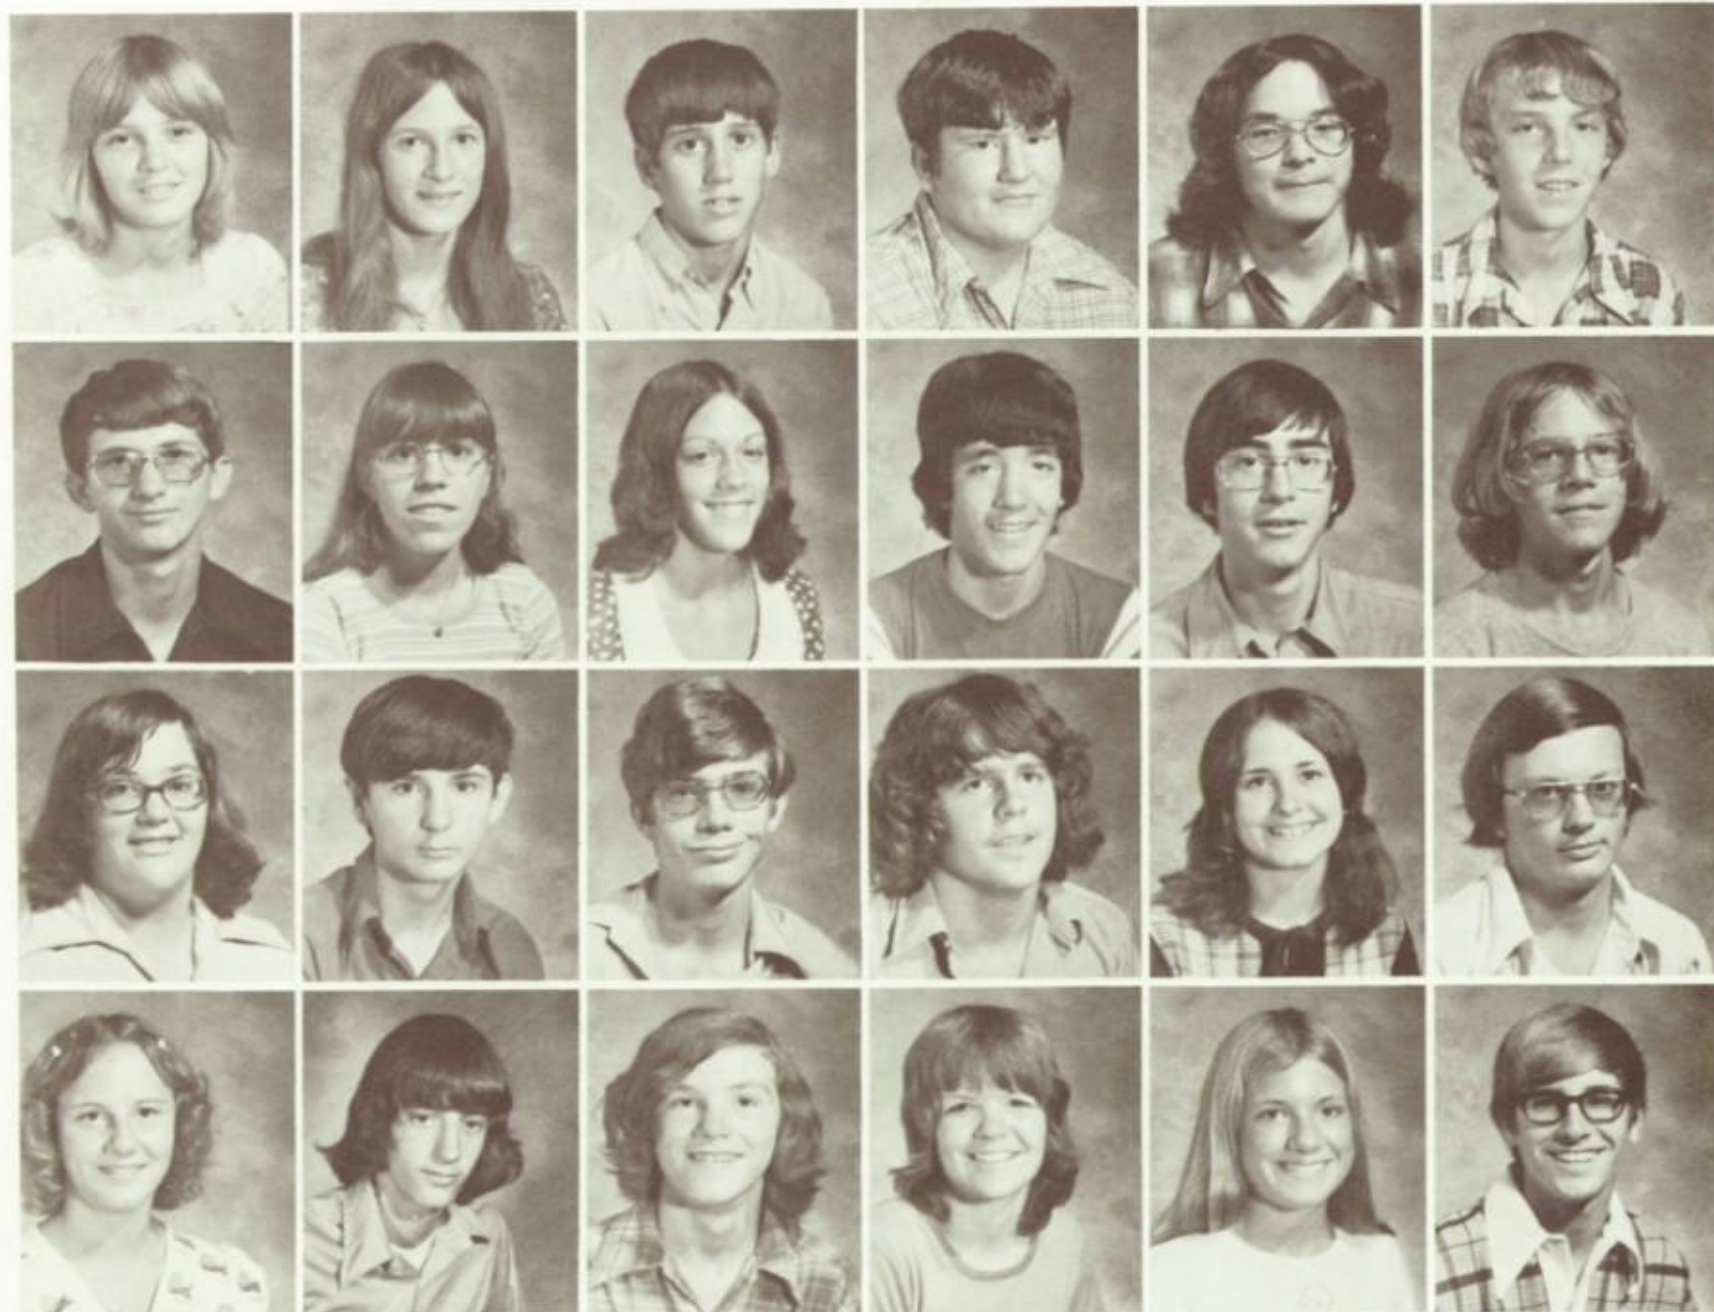

Randy Shelor—Sophomore

An understanding in life is that one cannot have all the good things without having some bad. For those who knew Randy Shelor taking the bad this year has been very painful.

Advisor—Mrs. Atchinson, Class Officers Nancy Koehler, Patti Chismark, advisor Mr. Dunn. Kyle Christiansen is other class officer not pictured.
